CONFERENCES—HISTORICAL

In the following summary of the conferences no effort has been made to either magnify or to minimize the facts, but to call attention to the actual conditions as they are revealed by conference records and church reports. Many of the churches not now reporting were organized for the time in which they lived and ceased to function at the end of that time. They did not have sufficient strength to carry them through the changes of the progressive time into which they soon entered. Many of them were organized without promise of continuance or reason for their existence. In the enthusiasm and zeal for the cause many revival meetings were held in schoolhouses, when a few people would enter into church relationship and organize a Christian Church. Many such were born to die, but they did not live in vain, for some of them were the beginning of larger churches. Out of some of these small beginnings there come to be strong churches that have continued until now. It quite often occurred that owing to bad roads, the inconvenience of travel, that two churches would be organized not far apart, and as preachers were not always paid a stated salary it was cheaper and more convenient to have more meeting places, and these more often than otherwise were the schoolhouses of the locality. There are in the localities of these erstwhile congregations even yet many who remain true to their original faith. Some have gone into other denominations, some have united with other Christian Churches, and in some localities the entire membership was absorbed in newly organized churches. Many of our rural churches have in the last few years yielded to the inevitable and closed their doors. There are a number of good church buildings now unoccupied and should be looked after by the conferences in which they are found. One encouraging fact should not be overlooked, which is that while we have lost in the open country, we have gained in the cities and larger villages. We have a number of churches now in large villages and cities where the single membership is several times more than the entire membership of a whole conference of that earlier time. Indeed these churches represent in their separate buildings more money and enroll in their membership more names, and pay their preachers more salary and give more to the Kingdom of God than some whole conferences are now doing. A study of the location of churches and their membership will be quite illuminating and a means of encouragement. One conference is named where more than half of the entire membership is their one city church.

Another conference of more than forty churches reports about one-fourth of the entire membership in two of their city churches. These are mentioned merely to suggest a study of the situation and for the encouraging element they afford.

ALABAMA—This conference has increased its church membership until now twenty-eight churches are reporting to conference. Of the twenty-eight, twenty-one are in the open country with a membership of 1,686. Three are in villages of two to four hundred with a membership of 114. One is in a village of five hundred and has a membership of 86. And two are in villages of five thousand more or less, members, 102.

CENTRAL ILLINOIS—As late as 1899 this conference enrolled twenty-seven churches. There are nineteen now. Some of the inactive churches are hopelessly so but others are not. There are six of them that have good meeting-houses and members who are loyal and true to their faith and profession. Among the nineteen that reported at the last conference seven are in the open country and have a membership of 638. Six are in villages of two or three hundred with a membership of 512. Three are in villages of one thousand or more with a membership of 221. One is in a village of about twenty-five hundred with a membership of 92. Two are in cities and have a membership of 501.

CENTRAL INDIANA—This conference reports nine churches, seven of which are in the open country and have a membership of 677. Two are in small villages with a membership of 257.

CENTRAL IOWA—Reports five churches, four of which are in villages of two hundred more or less and have a membership of 455. One is in the open country with a membership of 76.

EASTERN INDIANA—Once enrolled eighty-five churches in its membership, sixty-six of which reported to the conference in 1924. Some of the original churches were across the line in Ohio and are now enrolled in the Miami Ohio Conference. Of the sixty-six reporting to conference thirty-six are in the open country and have a membership of 2,693. Fifteen are in villages of two hundred more or less and have a membership of 1,327. Six are in villages of five hundred or more and have a membership of 951. Five are in villages of one thousand or more and have a membership of 840. Two are in villages of three thousand or more and have a membership of 149. Two are in a city with a membership of 254.

EASTERN KANSAS—At one time this conference had a membership of sixteen churches. It now reports five, three of which are active and two of the three had pastors when this report was made. They are in the open country or practically so, two of them being in small villages. The total membership is 174.

EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA—Has thirty-nine churches on its membership roll, thirty-eight of them reporting membership. Of these twenty-nine, one is in the open country with a membership of 3,548. One is in a village of two hundred more or less and has a membership of 38. Three are in villages of five hundred or more with a membership of 270. Three are in village of a thousand more or less and have a membership of 206. Two are in villages of about five thousand and have a membership of 118. And two are in cities with a membership of 350.

EASTERN VIRGINIA—The Eastern Indiana and the Miami Ohio each have a larger number of churches than the Eastern Virginia, but the Eastern Virginia has the largest number of churches in cities and a larger membership than either of them. The church membership is forty-five, seventeen of which are in the open country and have a membership of 2,908. Seven are in villages of two hundred more or less with a membership of 862. Six are in villages of about five hundred and have a membership of 831. Two are in villages of a thousand more or less and have a membership of 369. One is in a village of three thousand with a membership of 248. And twelve are in cities with a membership of 24,950.

HEEL RIVER—At one time this conference had on its roll of churches the names of thirty-nine. Thirty-three are yet on the roll, twenty-nine of which reported at the last conference. Ten of the twenty-nine did not have pastors at the time of reporting. Of the twenty-nine that reported twelve are in the open country and have a membership of 1,029. Eleven are in villages of two hundred more or less with a membership of 928. Two are in villages of one thousand or more with a membership of 751. One is in a village of three thousand and has a membership of 270. Three are in cities of ten thousand or more with a membership of 845.

ERIE—In 1843 this conference enrolled a membership of forty-five churches. In 1889 eighteen churches were yet members. The conference roll now includes the names of twelve, ten of which reported at the conference in 1924. What has become of the thirty-three churches is not known to The Christian Annual. It is safe to assume that some of the number were absorbed by other congregations. Some may have joined other conferences and some no doubt were born without strength to live, while others had no reason for their existing. Of the churches reporting there are four in the open country with a membership of 130. Three are in villages of two or three hundred. Membership, 179. Two are in villages of five hundred and have a membership of 145. Two are in cities and have a membership of 486.

GEORGIA AND ALABAMA—This conference has a membership of seventeen churches sixteen of which reported membership to the conference in 1924. Three are in the open country and have a membership of 352. Three are in villages of two hundred more or less and have a membership of 63. Three are in villages of five hundred or more with a membership of 143. Two are in villages of more than a thousand with a membership of 395. Six are in cities with a membership of 561.

INDIANA MIAMI RESERVE—This conference has had a church membership of thirty-three. This year it is reporting twenty. Some of the churches by which their number has been decreased have united with other conferences and the membership of some others have largely been absorbed by other churches of the conference. The territory of this conference includes some of the richest land and many of the most prosperous farmers of Indiana. Of the twenty churches reporting twelve are in the open country and have a membership of 960. Four are in villages of from two to four hundred with a membership of 314. One is in a village of a thousand and has a membership of 21. One is in a village of ten thousand or more and has a membership of 59, and one is in a city with a membership of 50.

ILLINOIS—This conference once enrolled five churches that have ceased to report. One new one was organized during the past year. Of the twelve churches reporting membership eight are in the open country and have a membership of 412. Three are in villages of two hundred more or less with a membership of 187. And one is in a village of five hundred and more with a membership of 25.

KENTUCKY DISTRICT NUMBER ONE—The original Kentucky Christian Conference was decreased in membership by the organization of the State Conference which divided its churches into two districts, One and Two. District No. One had at one time eighteen churches on its roll. It now reports three. All of them in the open country. They have a membership of 81. Many of the original number have gone over to the Nazarenes and other bodies of like character and are lost to the conference. Some people in the communities remain loyal to their original faith and the church they first joined.

KENTUCKY DISTRICT NUMBER TWO—Reports eight churches with a membership of 231. All the churches are in the open country.

KENTUCKY CHRISTIAN—This is our oldest conference. It was organized in 1804 by the pioneers from the Cane Ridge Revival. Barton W. Stone, David Purviance, and others of like character were the organizers. It now has fourteen churches all in the open country. They have a membership of 569. Some years ago this conference was divided by the organization of the Kentucky State Conference which is divided into Districts Number One and Two. It has a membership of forty-two ordained ministers and nine licentiates.

MAINE—The Maine Conference was formed by a session of the Eastern Maine and Central Maine Conferences in 1895. The record of church membership at that date included twenty-three. There are now twenty-one churches enrolled in the membership of the conference, fifteen of which did not report to the conference in 1924. The six that reported all had full time preaching. In some localities church edifices were built as community affairs which makes church life easy of decay and the transfer of property quite difficult. Word from eight of the inactive churches gives a membership of 125. Of the six that reported one is in a village of five hundred and has a membership of 88. Three are in villages of three thousand with a membership of 292 and two are in cities with a membership of 165.

MERRIMACK—Enrolls the names of ten churches, eight of them reporting to the conference in 1924. Seven have pastoral service. The Merrimack as at present constituted has the remnant of three conferences in its membership. The Merrimack itself which dates back to 1832. The Vermont Western organized in 1853 and the Vermont Eastern organized in 1849. The two later became the Vermont State Conference in 1893 which in 1906 was merged into the Merrimack. Of the eight churches reporting three are in the open country and have a membership of 125. Two are in villages of two hundred more or less with a membership of 83. One is in a village of a thousand or more with a membership of 145. One in a village of five thousand with a membership of 261. And one in a village of ten thousand with a membership of 173.

MIAMI OHIO—Of the fifty-two churches reporting, twenty-one are in the open country, and have a membership of 2,220; seven are in villages of two hundred, more or less, and have a membership of 908; six are in villages of five hundred or more, with a membership of 801; five are in villages of one thousand, more or less, with a membership of 1,137; three are in villages of three thousand or more, with a membership of 1,209; two are in villages of ten thousand or more, and have a membership of 1,227; eight are in cities, with a membership of 1,978.

MICHIGAN—Not many years ago this conference enrolled fourteen churches in its membership. This year it reports five. The membership is divided as follows: Three churches in the open country, membership, 139; one church in a village of five hundred or more has a membership of 50 active, 25 inactive; one church in a village of one thousand or more has 69 inactive and 47 active members.

MT. VERNON—In 1853 this conference enrolled twenty-six churches. It now enrolls sixteen, twelve of which reported to the conference last year. Of the sixteen enrolled seven had pastors when this report was made. Of the churches reported six are in the open country with a membership of 538. Two are in villages of less than five hundred and have a membership of 161. Three are in villages of five hundred or more with a membership of 185. Two are in villages of one thousand or more and have a membership of 169, and one is in a village of ten thousand or more and has a membership of 177. Sparta is in a village of five hundred but is inactive.

NEW YORK CENTRAL—Once enrolled the names of seventeen churches, ten of which are yet in existence and nine of them reported in 1924. Only one was without pastoral care and with one exception all of them have full time preaching. Some of the number are taking on new life. The entire number are in the country with a total membership of 607.

NEW YORK EASTERN—This conference enrolls thirty-nine churches, twenty-nine of which have pastoral service. Some have supplies and others are without service. Some years ago this conference had a membership of forty-four churches. At the late session of the conference (1924) it dissolved the New York Eastern Christian Ministerial Institute, the New York Eastern Christian Missionary Society and the Preachers' Aid Society. It adopted a new constitution and voted to incorporate. Of the thirty-six churches reported seventeen are in the open country with a membership of 755. Sixteen are in villages of two hundred more or less and have a membership of 1,002. One is in a village of five hundred having a membership of 108. One in a village of a thousand and has a membership of 250. And one in a city with a membership of 206. One or two churches are included here that do not appear in the regular conference report.

NEW YORK WESTERN—Reports eight churches five of them in the open country with a membership of 316. One in a village of two hundred or more with a membership of 35, and two in villages of one thousand or more with a membership of 106.

NEW JERSEY—Of the twenty churches reported twelve are in the open country and have a membership of 910. One is in a small village with a membership of 21. Two are in villages of five hundred or more with a membership of 199. One is in a village of a thousand and has a membership of 56. One is in a village of five thousand or more and has a membership of 240. Five are in cities with a membership of 707. The Church of the Evangel is in process of dissolution. It yet has a membership of 95.

NORTH CAROLINA AND VIRGINIA—Reports a church membership of thirty-five. Twenty-five of them are in the open country and have a membership of 3,303. Six are in villages of five hundred and more with a membership of 1,011. One is in a village of one thousand and has a membership of 151 and four are in cities with a membership of 936.

NORTHERN KANSAS AND NEBRASKA—There were at one time six more churches in the conference than are now reporting. They were members of the Northern Kansas Conference prior to the union of the two. Among them that are now inactive was the Dew Drop church from the membership of which came two ministers, Rev. F. M. Strange and Rev. C. G. Nelson.

Three of the five churches are in the country and have a membership of 449. The other two are in villages of above one thousand and have a membership of 330.

NORTHWESTERN KANSAS—This conference reports five churches, four of which are in the open country and have a membership of 91. One is in a village of two hundred more or less with a membership of 61.

NORTHWESTERN INDIANA—This conference has the distinction of having been organized by Elder Abram Snethen, "The Barefoot Preacher." The largest number of churches enrolled in this conference at any one time was twenty-six. Twenty-four reported at the conference in 1924, and only two were without pastors. Of those reporting fifteen are in the open country and have a membership of 1,158. Six are in villages of two or three hundred more or less with a membership of 370. Two are in villages of one thousand and more and have a membership of 389. One is in a city with a membership of 107.

NORTHWESTERN OHIO—This conference at one time had a church membership of forty-two. This number has been reduced to twenty-seven. Of the twenty-four churches reporting membership, ten are in the open country and have a membership of 728. Three are in villages of two hundred more or less and have a membership of 227. Six are in villages of five hundred and have a membership of 1,158. Two are in villages of one thousand or more with a membership of 496. One is in a village of nearly two thousand with a membership of 55. One is in a village of eight thousand with a membership of 93. And one is in a city and has a membership of 500.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS—Reports three churches all of them in the open country. The total membership is 165. One church that did not report is in a village of five hundred or more. This conference at one time had several more churches than are now reported.

NORTH MISSOURI—This conference reports seven churches all of them in the open country with a membership of 418. The conference has lost four churches.

OHIO—In 1899 this conference enrolled forty churches. When the Scioto Valley Conference was organized some of the Ohio Conference churches went into it. All the churches are in the open country and have a membership of 252. Thirteen names are yet carried on the church roll.

OHIO CENTRAL—This conference had at one time thirty-two active churches on its roll of members. The enrollment now is twenty-one. Seventeen of them reported to the conference last year. Of the ones reported five are in the open country with a membership of 279. Six are in villages of two hundred more or less with a membership of 524. Four are in villages of five hundred more or less and have a membership of 339. One is in a village of one thousand or more and has a membership of 278. One is in a city with a membership of 304. Rev. Henry Crampton is the Field Worker in this conference and supplies the pastorless churches as needed.

Two are in villages of five hundred or more and have a membership of 213. Two are in villages of a thousand or more and have a membership of 77. One is in a village of four thousand with a membership of 138. And three are in cities and have a membership of 332.

OSAGE, EASTERN DIVISION—This conference at one time had eleven churches two of which have ceased to report at all. Eight of the remaining nine reported to conference last year. And the membership is as follows: Five churches are in the open country and have a membership of 666. One is in a village of two hundred more or less with a membership of 37. One is in a village of five hundred or more with a membership of 25.

RAYS HILL AND SOUTHERN PENNSYLVANIA—There were at one time thirty-two churches in this conference. There are twenty-eight now, two of which did not report at the last conference. The churches that were and are not were organized in union meetinghouses. There are a few members yet in the localities of these meetinghouses loyal to their first devotion. Of the twenty-eight churches reported twenty-four are in the open country. They have a membership of 1,823. Three are in or near small villages with a membership of 171 and one is in a town of twenty-five hundred and has a membership of 175.

RHODE ISLAND AND MASSACHUSETTS—Some years ago reported thirty-three churches. It now has a church membership of twenty-five, two of which did not report to the conference in 1921. Two of the ones reporting did not have pastors and three are having supplies. It is worthy of note that sixteen of the ones having pastors have full time service. Some of the members of the now inactive churches have been added to the active ones and are not lost to the conference. Of the twenty-three reporting eight are in the open country and have a membership of 118. One is in a village of two hundred more or less with a membership of 22. One in a village of five hundred with a membership of 40. Four are in villages of one thousand or more and have a membership of 301. One in a village of three thousand having a membership of 104. And six are in cities and have a membership of 2,036.

RICHLAND UNION—In 1897 this conference reported eighteen churches and thirteen ministers. The report for 1924 records the names of eight churches and one minister. Of the eight churches seven are in the open country and have a membership of 153. One is in a village of five hundred or more with a membership of 26.

ROCKINGHAM—Reports fourteen churches, thirteen of them having regular pastoral service, the other two being supplied. So far but two churches have been lost to this conference. Of the thirteen churches reporting membership one is in the open country with a membership of 30. Two are in villages of five hundred or more with a membership of 62. Three are in villages of a thousand and have a membership of 244. Two are in villages of three thousand more or less and have a membership of 213. One is in a village of ten thousand with a membership of 72. And four are in cities and have a membership of 399.

SCIOTO VALLEY—This conference reports seven churches all of which are supplied with pastoral service. Some years ago it had a membership of eleven churches. Six of the churches are in the open country and have a membership of 184. One is in a city with a membership of 51.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS—Reports eight churches, seven in the open country with a membership of 281, one in a city with a membership of 13. It has lost the names of fourteen churches.

SOUTHERN INDIANA—This conference reports a membership of five churches and never reported more. Of the five churches two are in the open country with a membership of 184. Two are in villages of five hundred and more with a membership of 251 and one is adjoining a city with a membership of 67.

SOUTHERN KANSAS—In 1888 seventeen churches belonged to this conference and prior to that time as many as thirty. Of the five reporting there are two in the open country with a membership of 131. One is in a village of about three hundred with a membership of 5. Two are in villages of a thousand more or less with a membership of 179.

SOUTHERN OHIO—This conference once had a membership of thirty-six churches. It yet has the names of twenty-nine, eleven of which are inactive. Some of the churches lost to this conference were at one time the strongest ones in its membership and in the largest villages within its territory. Of the twenty-three churches reporting seventeen are in the open country and have a membership of 1,481. Three are in villages of two or three hundred more or less with a membership of 289. And three are in villages of about five hundred with a membership of 442.

SOUTHERN WABASH ILLINOIS—One of the oldest conferences in the middle west. Thirty-four churches are reported. There are twenty-three churches in the open country. They have a membership of 1,670. There are seven churches in villages of two hundred more or less and they have a membership of 714. There are three in villages of ten thousand more or less with a membership of 405.

SOUTHWESTERN WEST VIRGINIA—Reports six churches and a membership of 137. Presumably all the churches are in the open country. This conference at one time reported twelve churches.

TIOGA RIVER—There are no available statistics for comparison from this conference. It reports seven churches. Six are in the open country with a membership of 381, and one is in a city with a membership of 200. In 1889 there was a church membership of sixteen.

UNION IOWA—This conference has suffered a loss of eight churches. The church roll once reached fifteen. Seven are now inactive but one of them maintains a Sunday-school. Six had pastors at the time this report was made. Of the six reporting to conference five are in the open country and have a membership of 540. One is in a village of three hundred or more with a membership of about 100.

VIRGINIA VALLEY CENTRAL—This conference reports twenty-six churches. It has on its membership roll now all the churches that it ever had, and all of them active and having pastoral service. Twenty-five of them are in the open country and have a membership of 2,227. One is in a village of six thousand and more with a membership of 183.

WESTERN ILLINOIS—The largest number of churches known to have been enrolled by this conference was fourteen. Thirteen had meetinghouses, one worshiped in a school building. Seven churches are yet on the roll of membership. Three of them in the open country with a membership of 159. Two are in villages of two or three hundred more or less. Membership, 75. One in a village of five hundred or more. Membership, 66. And one in a village of a thousand. Membership, 37.

WESTERN INDIANA—This conference at one time had an enrollment of forty-five churches. These are now thirty-six. All knowledge of the defunct churches seems to be lost from the records and the memory of conference officials. Of the thirty-five churches reporting twenty-six are in the open country and have a membership of 2,358. Two are in villages of two hundred more or less and have a membership of 160. Six are in villages of five hundred or more with a membership of 1,169. And one is in a village of seven thousand or more and has a membership of 168.

WESTERN IOWA—Ten churches reported this year, out of a membership of eighteen. Seven are in the open country and have a membership of 630. One is in a village of about three hundred with a membership of 95. One is in a village of five hundred and has a membership of 159. And one is in a village of two thousand and more with a membership of 436.

WESTERN MICHIGAN AND NORTHERN INDIANA—I have no report from this conference. The New Carlisle church is having regular pastoral service. There are five churches yet on the membership list of the conference. Membership, 209.

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA—This conference enrolls thirty-four churches, the largest number it has enrolled so far. Of the thirty-two reporting to the conference in 1924 twenty-three are in the open country and have a membership of 2,359. One is in a village of two hundred more or less and has a membership of 64. One is in a village of five hundred with a membership of 48. Four are in villages of five thousand and more with a combined membership of 290. Two are in villages of ten thousand and more with a membership of 94. And one is in a city and has a membership of 495.

WESTERN OSAGE—Has suffered the loss of two churches from its membership of six. Of the four reporting three are in the country with a membership of 240. One is in a village of five hundred or more and has a membership of 100.

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA—This was an active conference until a few years ago. No report could be secured this year except that one man was ordained to the gospel ministry.

WEST VIRGINIA—For many years this conference reported a church membership varying from ten to twenty churches and during the life of Rev. John Tamkin the conference was always reported. Of late years the reports have been few and incomplete and for several years no report could be gotten. No report this year. It reports fourteen churches with a membership of 172. All are in the open country.

YORK AND CUMBERLAND—Only a few years ago fifteen churches reported to this conference, six of which reported in 1924. Membership, 365.

Webster Community Christian Church

This church was organized January 31, 1924, and within seven months built and dedicated a house costing more than $43,000.00. The building is of modern design and well equipped for religious worship, Christian Education, Sunday-school, and social purposes. The building has a tower fifty-six feet high, on top of which stands an electric cross carrying forty-two electric lights. It is said that this cross, when lighted, can be seen for a distance of twenty to twenty-five miles. It is located in the open country about four miles from Havre de Grace, Maryland, and was formally dedicated on Sunday, August 23, 1924. The dedicatory sermon was by Rev. George Christian Enders, D. D. on the subject, "The Incarnate Christ the Hope of the World." The church has a new parsonage, fully equipped and completely modern, which was dedicated a few weeks previous to that of the church building. At the time of dedication there were ninety-two members, none of whom had ever been members of the Christian Church, at the time of dedication. Seven months later the membership had about been doubled. The church is a member of the Eastern Virginia Conference and Rev. Milton W. Sutcliffe is pastor.

Sanfords Corner, N. Y.

As early as 1820 a group of Christian people formed a Christian Church organization to serve the townships of Leray, Felts Mills, and Lockport in northern New York State, with its center at Sanfords Corners, a few miles from Watertown, N. Y., nearly a mile from what is now the railway station of Calcium.

About 1852 a Union Church building was erected, jointly owned and controlled by the Methodist, Universalist, and Christian Church bodies. For more than twenty-five years very little active work has been carried on by any Church organization, and all the early organizations had practically died. In recent years a Community movement was started which continued less than a year. At various times Sunday-school work has been carried on and the church building has been available for funerals.

In November, 1923, Dr. J. N. Dales, as a field worker, made an investigation of the possibility of opening up an active work which would be linked up with the East Hounsfield Christian Church, and in December, Rev. R. G. English, pastor of East Hounsfield, took charge of afternoon preaching services at the Union Church building.

September 7, 1924, a new church was organized to make permanent a real community work. The charter membership of nineteen represents six different denominations—Lutheran, Episcopal, Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian, and Christian. Only one of the nineteen has ever been a member of one of our churches before—a daughter of a former Christian Church minister at Sanfords Corners.

The auditorium has been renovated and some shingling has been done. Improvements including estimate of volunteer labor (for all work was donated) was estimated at three hundred dollars.

Certain conditions have made development slow, but a splendid field is open to the Calcium Community Christian Church and Sunday-school. Two deacons were ordained in connection with a Communion service the first Sunday in December, 1924. A Ladies' Aid has been organized for service.

Union Christian College

At the meeting of the Trustees of Union Christian College, August 12, 1924, it was decided that the school could not be opened in September. Provisions were made for keeping the organization intact in the hope that some unforeseen providence would yet make it possible for the school to open its doors in the near future. Rev. E. A. Watkins, D. D., Urbana, Illinois, was elected and qualified president of the college and of the Board of Trustees. M. S. Campbell, Collison, Illinois, was elected treasurer, and Rev. Daniel O. Gettinger, Merom, Indiana, secretary.

Later a proposition was submitted by Mr. G. A. Bricker, associate editor of Farm Life, Spencer, Indiana, to reopen the school with an enlarged program, to include vocational courses of training. A meeting of the trustees of the college was called at Merom, on December 16, 1924. Prof. J. C. Runk, of Minneapolis, who had been formerly associated with Mr. Bricker in vocational training schools, was asked to be present at the meeting. After the most careful consideration, the board decided that the school should be reopened in the fall of 1925, with an enlarged program of finance and course of training. The organization remains unchanged. Mr. Bricker was elected as administrative advisor.

In addition to a department for the training of ministers and church leadership, departments of commerce, home making, and agriculture are to be included as rapidly as they can be financed.

Salt Creek Christian Conference

There is in Ohio a body of believers organized as the Salt Creek Christian Conference. It met in 1924, at the Bethel Church. The proceedings were published in pamphlet form. It was the 104th annual session. There were thirty-three delegates, including the conference officers, and four ministers. The following officers were elected:

President, William Mathews, Hatch, Ohio.

Secretary, Ralph Douthitt, Piketon, Ohio, R. R. 2.

Assistant Secretary, I. N. Basye, Piketon, Ohio, R. R. 2.

Treasurer, Ivy Dixon, Piketon, Ohio, R. R. 2.

District Superintendent, I. N. Basye, Piketon, Ohio, R. R. 2.

The Convention Secretary has been unable to identify this conference beyond the information given in the published minutes. He has no reason to believe that it is a conference of the Christian Church, but wonders, if it is not, how it came to have the name Christian Conference a hundred and four years ago.

The editor of The Christian Annual desires to express his appreciation of the kindly and efficient co-operation of all who have had to do with the work. Especial mention is made of Mr. McLefresh, and his fellow laborers, Miss Nauerth, the proof reader, and the Convention stenographer, together with the many others who have furnished reports and otherwise helped to make the book a history of the church for the year 1924. And he is even thankful to those to whom he had to write two, three, or four times that he did not have to write another time.

MEMBERS OF COMMISSIONS AND COMMITTEES OF THE FEDERAL COUNCIL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Federal Council itself appoints the commissions and committees, selecting from the denominations such ones as are deemed best fitted for the place. The list as given below is the list of members from the Christian Church serving during the quadrennium just closed. The commissions and committees for the ensuing quadrennium have not yet been announced, but it is reasonably certain that few, if any, changes will be made in the personnel from the Christian Church. The Federal Council members are elected by The General Convention of the Christian Church, and serve four years. The time of the present members expires at the meeting of the General Convention in 1926.

The Christian Publishing Association which is ex officio the Department of Publishing has made great strides forward the past year. Its Publishing House at the corner of Fifth and Ludlow streets in the city of Dayton, Ohio, built twenty years ago was not well adapted to the expanding business of the Association, so an opportunity to sell this House was improved and the property sold for $175,000 cash, complete possession not to be given until May 1925, providing that a new House was not ready for occupancy before that time.

A new location was purchased at the corner of Ludlow and Court streets across the street from the present House for $68,000 cash. A new Publishing House built of steel and concrete five stories high and basement is now under construction at a cost of about $110,000. This building has fifty percent more floor space than the old House and is constructed especially for the publishing business. There will be three ground floor business rooms, two will be for rent and one will be occupied by the bookstore of the Publishing House. The fifth floor will be for the offices of the Departments of The General Convention of the Christian Church, together with large board and committee rooms which can be thrown into one large room for General Board and Conference meetings. The fourth floor will be for rent, also office rooms on the second and third floors. The new Publishing House will be fireproof throughout and will be a source of pride and commanding strength to the Christian Church.

The business of The Christian Publishing Association has shown a very satisfactory increase the past year and under the direct charge of A. F. Chase, Circulation Manager, both The Herald of Gospel Liberty and The Journal of Christian Education have shown a healthy increase in paid subscriptions and the entire business of the Association under John H. Stewart as Manager, has shown a substantial gain in volume.

When the new House is completed and fully equipped, the Association will have an up-to-date home and the Christian Church a substantial and commodious Publishing House.

The Board of Publishing of The General Convention of the Christian Church for the year ending September 30, 1924, has had cash receipts as follows:

Forward Movement	$ 2,500.00
Miscellaneous sources	578.57
Total	$ 3,078.57
October 1, 1923, balance on hand	10,824.52
Total balance and receipts	$13,903.09
Disbursements	1,286.71
October 1, 1924, balance on hand	$12,616.38

The Board of Publishing at its October meeting, 1924, set aside as a permanent fund the sum of $12,000 to be loaned and only the interest to be used for current purposes. During the past year prize essays were awarded to Mrs. Thomas Gray Robinson, Albany, N. Y., Rev. B. F. Vaughn, Centerville, Ohio, Rev. S. L. Beougher, Graham, N. C., Rev. D. P. Hurlburt, Bangor, Maine. These awards were made in the prize contest on certain "Principles of the Christians."

During the year the Board has printed for free distribution thirty-three thousand booklets, circulars, and folders. The Department is also placing The Herald of Gospel Liberty and The Journal of Christian Education in strategic centers for general advertising and publicity purposes. The names of persons and institutions to which they are sent are supplied by Rev. Alva Martin Kerr, D. D., Editor of The Herald of Gospel Liberty and by W. A. Harper, LL.D., editor of The Journal of Christian Education.

The Board of Publishing through its free publications is providing a means by which not only our own church people but strangers as well may become better acquainted with the history and principles of the Christian Church.

Department of Home Missions

Rev. Omer S. Thomas, D. D., Secretary

Board of Home Missions—Rev. G. O. Lankford, D. D., Burlington, N. C.—President.
 Mrs. Athella M. Howsare, 1535 N. Euclid Ave., Dayton, Ohio—Secretary.
 Rev. Omer S. Thomas, D. D., 40 C. P. A. Bldg., Dayton, Ohio—General Secretary and Treasurer.
 Rev. H. M. Hainer, 213 Tremont St., New Bedford, Mass.
 Rev. C. G. Nelson, Red Cloud, Nebraska.
 M. S. Campbell, Collison, Illinois.

We are now thinking of the work of Home Missions in the terms of Better Efficiency and Understanding. Under the first class we place our work for Sustentation of Churches, Revolving Loan Fund, Field Work in Conferences, and Pastors' Summer Schools. In the second class we place our New American, Mountaineer, Lumber Camp, Negro, and Indian Work. In all of these fields during the past year there has been such growth and helpfulness as to bring much satisfaction in considering results. Nearly nine hundred members have been added to our home mission churches and with very few exceptions we have been able to reduce the appropriations without injury to the churches. Last year the Board adopted the policy of requiring all churches to plan their programs looking to self-support with the policy of reducing the appropriation each year twenty percent. The Board reaffirmed its belief that this policy should be continued and that churches not only cease their dependence on outside aid but should work to the standard adopted last year and extend their activities to others. The great majority of the churches are co-operating in a fine way.

The Board voted to continue the field work on about the same basis as heretofore, but were not able to take on additional workers although there is now opportunity in some very needy fields. Some very excellent service has been rendered by our field men in the conferences, especially in the way of reviving dead churches. We can hardly measure the addition to the efficiency of our churches through the work of the field men.

One of the most outstanding pieces of work is that of our new church at Riverdale in Dayton. Organized the Fourth of February of last year they plan to go to self-support during the year, having now a membership of 230 with a goal for 400 by the day of their anniversary. Walnut Hills is planning to build immediately and their old building is being wrecked. A new church was organized at Calcium, near Watertown, N. Y., by Rev. R. G. English.

Appropriations were made to twenty-one churches, fifteen conferences, as follows: Albany, Mo., Rev. F. G. Coffin; Bangor, Me., Rev. Donald P. Hurlburt; Brooklyn, N. Y., Rev. P. S. Sailer; Columbus, Ohio, Rev. J. S. Kegg; Crown Point, Dayton, Ohio, Rev. Clark Denison; Defiance, Ohio, Rev. F. H. Peters, East Hounsfield, N. Y., Rev. R. G. English; Everett, Pa., Rev. W. M. Jay; Franklin, Ohio, Rev. E. H. Rainey; Haverhill, Mass., Rev. A. C. Youmans; Lynn, Mass., Rev. Flora M. Neagles; Manchester, N. H., Rev. P. W. Caswell; Muncie, Indiana, Rev. M. W. Butler; Red Cloud, Nebr., Rev. C. G. Nelson; Riverdale, Dayton, Ohio, Rev. E. B. Flory, Springfield, Ohio, Rev. A. B. Appropriations were made to special work such as: Indian Work, Americanization Work, Mountain Work, Logging Camp Work, Salary of Missionary Education Secretary, Pastors' Schools, Franklinton College, Administration, Christian Missionary Deficit, Home Missions Council, and Missionary Education Movement.

The Board being asked to continue in its responsibility and support of the Pastors' Schools by the Board of Christian Education voted to make an appropriation to that work on about the same basis as formerly.

Miss Marian Morrill has been asked to become the Missionary Education Secretary for the two Boards and will have charge of much of the development of that phase of the work co-operating with the Board of Christian Education to some extent in developing mission study in the Sunday-schools as well as pushing other plans of bringing Missions prominently into the activities of the church.

The following officers of the Home Mission Board were elected:

President, Rev. G. O. Lankford, D. D., Burlington, N. C.
 Recording Secretary, Mrs. Athella Howsare, Dayton, Ohio.
 Treasurer, Omer S. Thomas, Dayton, Ohio.
 Home Mission Council, Omer S. Thomas, Athella Howsare, and Mr. M. S. Campbell.

Commendable gains in the normal activities of our Foreign Mission work have been made during the past year, but reconstruction has occupied a large share of our time and energy and means.

Relief work in Japan was continued on a large scale for several months following the earthquake, and our Tokyo missionaries and national Christians represented our church in most commendable fashion.

We received during the year for Earthquake Relief and Reconstruction purposes, $8,139.76, plus $3,158.34 received immediately after the disaster in September, making a total of $11,298.10. The earlier funds were used entirely for relief; the balance is now being used in reconstruction. The Azabu church was entirely rebuilt and extensive repairs made on the Kasumi Cho Mission Home, Oji church and kindergarten, and the Naka Shibuya church and kindergarten. Repairs were also made on the Sendai mission home and two of our northern churches.

The new mission home so long delayed has finally been completed in Tokyo, to be occupied by the Garmans.

A new arrangement with the Japanese Christian Conference called the Co-operative Board was organized this year and is functioning nicely, giving larger responsibility to the Japanese brethren in the conduct of the work. This is the most outstanding achievement of our Japan mission this year, being one step nearer our ultimate goal of an indigenous Japanese church.

Miss Crew, who was sent out last year, has completed the first year of language study and has also already done some definite work.

Two native pastors retired during the year, but two better trained men have been secured to take their places. One of these, Mr. Taizumi, is a graduate of Defiance College and a postgraduate of Oberlin Seminary and Chicago University.

Two Bible women retired during the year, but two better trained young women have taken their places. One is a graduate of a Bible training school.

One pastor has transferred to the superintendency of Sendai Christian Orphanage, thus extending the sphere of our responsibility in a union enterprise.

One new student has been enrolled in kindergarten training schools.

Four new theological students from our churches have been added, making a total of seven in the union seminary in which we are co-operating, Dr. Woodworth being on the faculty. Mr. Sano, who returned last year, has been ordained and is doing unusually fine work, both in his own church and in the Japan Conference. The addition of these new, thoroughly trained men greatly strengthens the national force.

The Immigration Act is giving much concern, but is being met by a mutually Christian spirit on the part of both missionaries and nationals.

In Japan we had only eighty-nine baptisms as against ninety-two the previous year. But we have gained in every other department. Resident membership increased from 692 to 730, a gain of thirty-eight; enrolled inquirers from 161 to 170, a gain of nine; Sunday-school enrollment from 1856 to 2436, a gain of 580; the giving of our Japanese Christian churches in the wake of the earthquake increased from yen 5847.85 to yen 7154.08, a gain of yen 1306.23, or $653.16. This includes an increase for pastoral support on the part of the Japanese from yen 1231 to yen 2129, a gain of yen 898, or $449.00.

The Japanese work is more thoroughly organized and both missionaries and nationals of our church are becoming more fully recognized as potent factors in the evangelization of the country.

PORTO RICO

Extensive repairs were made on the mission home in Ponce, and the church at Arns.

Two new lots in a promising suburban section of Ponce were bought at a cost of $400. A chapel has been moved to this new location.

The house in Salinas which we had been renting for Miss Williams' home and industrial work was about to be sold out from under us, when a gift of $2,800.00 to buy it was made by one of our consecrated laymen, thus saving that work to us.

Two other laymen gave gifts of $1,000 and $100 to be used for chapel buildings, and one conference woman's board sends something over three hundred dollars toward another.

The Barretts have had a regular furlough during the year and are back on the field after thorough medical treatment and a good rest.

The Mortons have done excellent work, first assisting Miss Williams, and then in overseeing the repair work and acting as mission treasurer.

Mr. Rivera, who returned last year, has been put in charge of the Salinas station, after a year's work in Ponce.

One young man was graduated from the union seminary and put in charge of a newly established main station, where a church with twenty-five charter members was organized in June. Two pastors were ordained this fall. Two kindergartens and two Daily Vacation Bible Schools were successfully conducted.

The membership of our Porto Rico churches was increased from 280 to 357, a gain of 77; the Sunday-school enrollment from 825 to 902, a gain of 77. A loss in benevolent offerings was sustained, but national pastoral support increased from $312 to $437.45, a gain of $125.45.

The Foreign Mission Department has continued its active co-operation in various interdenominational enterprises such as the Foreign Missions Conference, Committee on Co-operation in Latin America, Missionary Education Movement, World Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches, Federal Council's Committee on International Justice and Goodwill, etc.

A comparison of receipts for the past two years follows:

	1923	1924
General Fund	$33,909.73	$33,483.33
Designated Funds	10,022.17	17,611.28
Forward Movement	15,000.00	12,500.00
Totals	$58,931.90	$63,594.61

This shows a decrease of $426.40 in regular receipts, an increase of $7,589.11 in designated funds and a decrease of $2,500 in Forward Movement receipts. The large increase in the designated funds includes the earthquake fund. We added during the year $3,870.00 to our permanent funds.

The present indebtedness of the Foreign Mission Department is $11,182.74.

We have had the most constructive year yet in missionary education. Systematic missionary instruction in the Sunday-school has been constantly stressed. During the Foreign Mission period we stressed heavily the Church

School of Missions plan with good results. In addition to this we used a suggestive program designed to provide a short Foreign Mission Introduction to each of the regular Sunday-school and morning preaching services for the six weeks leading up to Foreign Mission Day. About an hundred churches used this plan, and between fifty and sixty used the Church School of Missions plan. Some used both.

In introducing these two plans a limited number of three different leaflets were issued. Also a thousand posters were issued and four leaflets for free distribution. Many churches using neither of the two plans just mentioned did use the other leaflets for free distribution in connection with the annual offering. One other leaflet of a general Foreign Mission character was also issued.

The secretary has continued to edit The Christian Missionary, which this year reached the largest number of subscribers in its history. He has given about one hundred addresses in forty-five churches in sixteen conferences, and in about twenty institutes and conference session, as well as on numerous special occasions. He has traveled 13,415 miles, reaching with the spoken word about 13,215 people, and he has represented the Department on the various interdenominational organizations before mentioned.

This year of reconstruction has in many respects been one of unusual strengthening of our whole cause.

The following plans, adopted at this session of the Foreign Mission Department, are to be carried out this coming year, 1925.

Miss Stacy is to complete her year of furlough study at Defiance, where she is now specializing in Bible, domestic science, music, and social psychology in preparation for her work upon her return to Japan next August.

Mr. McKnight will come home next spring for his regular furlough and it is expected that the school year will be spent in additional training, possibly at Boston or Yale.

We plan to continue the training of our seven theological training students in Japan, Dr. Woodworth continuing on the faculty of the Union Seminary. He will also teach seven hours a week in the Azabu School with which he has been so long connected. Dr. Fry and Mr. McKnight will also continue some English teaching in addition to their other work. Mr. Garman will continue to represent us on the union enterprises in Japan and will also direct the work of building the long delayed church and kindergarten building in Shibuya.

Two young ladies are in the kindergarten training school this year.

Owing to the prolonged and serious illness of Miss Williams, the Mortons will return to Salinas to continue the work there. It is expected that the work will be enlarged somewhat by the addition of some agricultural features on a small scale.

We plan to build in Porto Rico this year one new chapel in a promising outpost at a cost of about $500.00. We also plan to equip our new main station at Penuelas, opened last year, by building at least a chapel and, if possible, a home for the pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Fletcher have been placed under appointment to Japan and it is expected that they will sail with Miss Stacy next August. Mr. Fletcher enters his life-work with the most thorough preparation for his chosen field, Japan. He is a graduate of McMaster University and is now completing his third year at Yale, specializing in religious education and the religions of Japan. His preliminary examinations for the Ph. D. degree are to be taken next spring and his work during the first term in Japan will point toward the securing of the degree on the first furlough.

We expect to continue our established plans of bringing the national church in both fields to larger self-support each year.

Missionary education in co-operation with the Board of Christian Education will be vigorously pushed throughout the coming year, using the methods which were so successful last year, such as the preliminary missionary program in the regular services during the Foreign Mission period, and the Church School of Missions during the six weeks' period from the first of February to the middle of March. In addition to these educational features, the department plans to continue as much field work as is consistent with the efficient conduct of the office.

The Foreign Missions Convention at Washington, D. C., from January 28 to February 2 will be one of the greatest missionary conferences ever held in this country, and the Foreign Mission Department expects to have its full quota of thirty-six delegates present. Since the number is so limited it will be necessary to select representative persons throughout the denomination.

It is planned to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of our entrance into mission work in Porto Rico at the close of the twenty-fifth year in order to co-operate with the Missionary Education Movement's plan for the study of Latin America in 1925-1926.

Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick, Frankfort, Indiana, was placed under appointment with the understanding that she is to finish this year's teaching in the high school and spend next year in a special missionary training school. It is anticipated that Miss Kirkpatrick may be allocated to teach in some Union Christian College.

The following budget was adopted:

Japan, regular work	$27,000.00
Japan, special work	5,250.00	$32,250.00
Porto Rico, regular work	$11,100.32
Porto Rico, special work	3,300.20	$14,400.52
Miscellaneous work		10,500.00
Total budget		$57,150.52

To this must be added the deficit of $11,182.74, making the total minimum budget absolutely necessary for next year $68,333.26. We call the attention of the General Board and of the whole church to this situation which must be met as a denominational matter. The only other alternative is to recall some of our workers.

We would also remind the church that the actual need for the work which should be done this year is $84,156.06 from which we have made the drastic cut of $15,822.80 below actual requirements. And this has been done in the face of the fact that opportunities for the development of our foreign mission work have never been so compelling, and young people from our own homes, trained in our own schools and consecrated to our own fields of service, are knocking at our door asking to be sent out.

During the year 1924 we have been steadily working away at the task of surveying, outlining, promoting, and directing a full program of Christian education and training for Christian life and service reaching from our homes through our churches, communities, schools, and colleges, and are beginning to feel that the twenty years we allotted to achieve this goal are not enough. You cannot overcome the inertia of a lifetime in any brief time. Our confidence grows stronger however that we are on the right road and that the people are at heart with us in our task when they really understand it.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

The treasurer's report shows that we have permanent funds amounting to $10,100.00 on which $425.50 interest is now due and reveals during the year from October 1, 1923, to September 30, 1924, the following current income and expenses:

The Forward Movement of the Christian Church

Rev. Warren H. Denison, D. D., Superintendent

ORGANIZATIONAL

Conferences and local churches are constantly organizing themselves definitely upon the five points of the Movement. This is gratifying and brings an added unity to our work, strengthens the church program, increases efficiency, simplifies organization, develops the spirit of co-operation. Just as rapidly as our conferences and churches plan and put into their organization the five departments, Devotion, Evangelism and Life Service, Christian Education, Missions, Stewardship and Finance, will they be able to secure larger assistance from the corresponding departments and officials of the denomination.

FINANCES

Total receipts for the year as follows	$ 56,932.95
a. Payments on pledges	$56,437.99
b. Cash Gifts	280.70
c. Interest on deposits	69.26
d. Renewed Continuation pledges	1,145.00

The above receipts have been remitted monthly to the treasurer, Mr. J. O. Winters, as follows:

October	$5,379.02	April	$6,123.50
November	6,200.71	May	4,580.20
December	5,096.20	June	3,812.99
January	4,838.94	July	3,791.36
February	3,112.05	August	3,543.75
March	4,973.37	September	5,480.86
Total			$ 56,932.95

The expenses of the Forward Movement promotion and administration for the year were$ 5,396.21

The expenses of the Department of Stewardship, Promotion and Social Service were	$ 2,300.48
The expenses of the Department of Evangelism and Life Service were	$ 4,676.28

SUMMARY TO DATE—SEPTEMBER 30, 1924

Total amount of pledges, cash gifts, liberty bonds, preliminary promotional funds, interest earnings, etc., received from the beginning of the Movement	$803,055.37
Total receipts from all sources on the above	$446,495.50
Total expenses of the Forward Movement from its inception, which expenses include not merely the ordinary administrative work, but the field and promotional work, Canadian exchange, annuity interest, poor checks, and no deduction has been made for the office fixtures	$ 70,750.54
Total expenses of the Department of Stewardship, Promotion and Social Service (two years) as directed by the Executive Board of the General Convention	$ 3,541.67
Total Expenses of the Department of Evangelism and Life Service (two years) as directed by the Executive Board of the General Convention	$ 8,731.41
There is but one annuity amount on which interest is paid, and that is at six percent.

The Treasurer has distributed funds as follows to the several departments in the regular distributions:

Christian Education	$105,000.00
(Including Sunday-school, Christian Endeavor, and Colleges, etc.)
Home Missions	87,500.00
Foreign Missions	87,500.00
Conventions	52,500.00
Publications	17,500.00

S. O. Albaugh, a Convention auditor, certifies to the correctness of the accounts of the Forward Movement.

All pledges are now due and should be paid in full. Some have asked for an extension of time in view of sickness, economic conditions, and other legitimate reasons. All should now see that the full amounts are met without further delay so that work begun may not be crippled. I wish to register here my appreciation of the fine spirit of our people generally.

FIELD WORK

In addition to the heavy office work this year your Superintendent has given 226 public messages on nearly all phases of our church work. These addresses have been given in 59 different churches and in sixteen different conferences as follows: Miami Ohio, 16; New Jersey, 10; Rays Hill and Southern Pennsylvania, 10; New York Eastern, 5; Northwestern Ohio, 3; Ohio Central, Central Illinois, Eastern Virginia, Northwestern Indiana, 2 each; Southern Wabash, Northern Illinois, Tioga River, Western Indiana, Rockingham, Merrimac, York and Cumberland, 1 each. He has attended and spoken before the Central and Southern Conventions, the Defiance Pastors' School, the New York Eastern Quarterly, the student body and Religious Association of Defiance College, the United Stewardship Council, the Conference of Promotional Representatives, the Ministers' Meeting of the Eastern Virginia Conference and has attended some or all of the sessions of the following annual conferences: Tioga River, Central Illinois, Miami Ohio, Rays

Hill and Southern Pennsylvania, Rockingham, Merrimac, York and Cumberland, Ohio Central, Mt. Vernon, Eastern Virginia.

CONTINUATION PLEDGES

As per the action of the General Board and of this Board, our office has been soliciting those who gave cash gifts or have completed their payments on their pledges to the Forward Movement to continue the same annually until the donors see fit to cancel them. A letter of appreciation on behalf of the beneficiary boards was prepared and sent out. In due time this was followed with a personal letter of gratitude from the President of the General Convention. This was followed with a letter of thanks from the Superintendent of the Forward Movement. There was an enclosure of a sixteen page pamphlet, "The Christian Church Goes Forward," which sets forth clearly the outstanding achievements by the several boards through the use of Forward Movement funds already received. It set forth the necessity of continuing the work. The cards of subscription are now coming to our office. They are made payable to The General Convention of the Christian Church with the same percentage of distribution as under the Forward Movement.

Rev. Ernest D. Gilbert, Defiance, Ohio.

As we bring our report relative to the accomplishments of the Department of Evangelism and Life Service for the past year, we feel deeply gratified because the past year more than any other thus far has proved the need and value of such a Department in our general organization. We have just begun to realize on the time and thought and money invested in the Department. During the past year, the Department has made a definite contribution to the denomination by its Kingdom Enlistment Week Program which this Board formed, adopted, and recommended to the General Board one year ago.

The General Secretary of the Department of Evangelism and Life Service represented the denomination in various interdenominational gatherings during the year in the interest of a constructive program of Evangelism. Kept in correspondence with a number of leading pastors in responding to their requests for counsel in their program of Evangelism in the local church, and spoke on denominational Conference and Regional Convention programs.

He attended all but one of the meetings of the Federal Council Commission on Evangelism and Life Service during the year, and was a member of the Federal Council Evangelistic Team visiting four of the principal cities of New York State on an itinerary January, 1924, and spoke at from two to three union meetings in each of the cities. The Board of Evangelism considered that this annual itinerary of the Federal Council Commission of Evangelism under the leadership of Dr. Chas. L. Goodell is one of the most important contributions it can make toward the objective of establishing our denominational identity in the various cities.

Rev. McD. Howsare, Executive Secretary Department of Evangelism and Life Recruits

In June the General Secretary and the Executive Secretary attended a most interesting and profitable Conference on Evangelism at Northfield, Massachusetts, as guests of the Federal Council. At this Conference, Secretaries of Evangelism of the different denominations met in retreat for three days of study and meditation upon the great responsibility of the Church of today in the work of Evangelism.

Following are some of the topics considered at this important Conference:

Theme: Present Day Appeal to Non-Christians.

Why ask men to unite with the church?

How much emphasis on negatives?

What has the church to offer?

How present the appeal?

Theme: A Fall Church Program.

The advantage of a fall rally.

The fellowship canvass.

Theme: A Program of Personal Evangelism.

Possibility of School of Evangelism to train personal workers.

Comparison of members who are received through personal campaigns with those received through evangelistic meetings.

Laymen and a successful personal evangelistic campaign.

The General Secretary prepared a paper for this Conference on the subject, "The Pastor's Part in a Modern Program of Evangelism." It will be of interest to know that said paper was one of the two that was requested for publication. In response to the request of the Conference the paper was given to Dr. Goodell who wished to have it published by the Federal Council for general distribution.

In response to the request of the last meeting of the General Board, the General Secretary prepared a twenty-four page booklet during the year on "Evangelism of the Youth" or "The Supreme Objective in Religious Education," which booklet was printed by The Christian Publishing Association.

The Executive Secretary of the Department, Rev. McD. Howsare, has demonstrated in a most remarkable manner the value of the Kingdom Enlistment Week Program. In fifteen different Churches representing eight different Conferences and five different States, our Executive Secretary has put on the Kingdom Enlistment Week program. Some of these churches were weak rural churches, some village churches, and some city churches. These campaigns were put on during every month of the year, thus demonstrating that Kingdom Enlistment Week is practicable for any type of Church and for any season.

The results attending these campaigns are beyond the most sanguine hopes the Board cherished when it adopted the Kingdom Enlistment Week program. More than one thousand members have been received into the Christian Church during the year in response to Kingdom Enlistment Week.

During the year the Executive Secretary has published a splendid booklet on "How to Win Others to Christ," presenting in detail the program of Kingdom Enlistment Week so that any church can put on a Kingdom Enlistment Week by following the instructions set forth in this booklet.

Rev. Howsare has not only conducted the fifteen Kingdom Enlistment Week Demonstration Campaigns during the year, but has given a course of lectures at three of our summer schools, spoken at the Girls' and Boys' Conferences, and represented the Department of Evangelism and Life Service on various other programs in the interest of the Church we all love.

Mention should also be made of the service rendered through this Department in the General Secretary receiving into our denominational fellowship during the past a pastor of a thriving Community Church in Maryland, together with his Congregation of a hundred and nine members. This Church is located in the richest agricultural section of Maryland and the congregation is made up of the most substantial people of the community.

The pastor and Church were later received into the Eastern Virginia Conference. More than sixty persons have united with this church since it has become identified with us, and the Congregation has within the last six months built one of the finest, if not the finest, rural church buildings and parsonage in the entire denomination.

It is the conviction of the Board of Evangelism that it together with the Home Mission Board might render a great service to the denomination and to the Kingdom by getting in touch with other independent churches and laying our principles before them.

In the interest of rendering a still larger service the coming year, the Board submitted the following recommendations for the consideration of the General Board:

1. That in following the example of several of the leading denominations, the Christian Church make Evangelism the major emphasis in all its activities

Dr. Alva M. Kerr makes the first pledge to the Department of Evangelism and through all its departments the coming year that every Church and pastor will rally to the challenge to help in winning twelve thousand new members to the Christian Church before October 1, 1925.

2. That to this end the Department of Evangelism and Life Service plan a Denominational Retreat to be held at Dayton, Ohio, the first week in February, 1925, for confession, consecration, fellowship, and the study of modern and constructive methods of Evangelism.

3. That owing to the unprecedented success which has attended the carrying out of our program of evangelism, we urge that all our churches observe Kingdom Enlistment Week sometime during the year.

4. That a day combining the features of Rally Day and Roll Call Day be observed by each church for the purpose of confession, consecration, prayer, and fellowship,—a day when the united church shall pledge to God, and to humanity a more worthy service. At this time each church should have a "Covenant of Reconsecration" placed at the altar, and each member invited to sign the same as a testimony of sincerity and loyalty to the church and the Kingdom.

5. That every church seek to revise its membership roll in a practicable manner so as to ascertain the real membership of the various conferences. This Board believes that the practice of some churches in revising the membership roll by merely dropping names from the roll because of non-attendance, etc., is wrong, and would urge that the pastors and church Boards recognize that the irregular and indifferent church members constitute a definite evangelistic responsibility.

6. That our pastors and editors stress the "Church Attendance" Campaign which the Federal Council Commission on Evangelism has launched for the coming year, in the interest of creating regularity of attendance on the part of all church members, and the attendance of the non-churchgoing group found in every community.

7. That the "Evangelism of Youth" by Gage, be the textbook for training classes in Evangelism during the coming year.

8. That a simultaneous effort be made throughout the brotherhood for a large ingathering in all our churches on Easter Sunday.

9. That a special appeal be made from the pulpits and through the press for recruits for the Christian ministry.

10. That we call upon our pastors and Sunday-school teachers to stress with a new fervor the destroying consequence of sin, the power of the Holy Spirit, the need of repentance, confession, conversion, consecration, and service.

11. That we urge as a measure of conserving the results of the evangelistic efforts first, the holding of a one-week "Institute on Stewardship," following a Kingdom Enlistment Week Program; second, that this Department assist the pastors in securing suitable literature for holding pastors' training classes; third, that the pastors preach a series of sermons on prayer, Bible reading, family worship, and church attendance following Kingdom Enlistment Week.

12. That our pastors reinterpret to their congregations and communities the responsibility of church membership, and the importance of Christian people transferring their membership soon after moving from one community to another.

13. That a budget of six thousand dollars ($6,000.00) be provided according to the recommendation of the Executive Committee of the General Convention. The Department assuming partial self-support the coming year and full self-support thereafter.

14. That Rev. C. H. Hallenbeck of Ravena, New York, be appointed as a member of the Board of Evangelism and Life Service to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Rev. Geo. D. Eastes.

15. That a team of two be appointed by the Department of Evangelism and Life Service to visit our colleges during the winter in the interest of Life Service Work.

16. That each of the Regional Conventions be urged to employ a field worker to assist in holding Kingdom Enlistment Week Campaigns in the various churches of the Conferences.

17. That we instruct our Executive Secretary to adopt a plan of getting in touch with parents in our churches, by means of correspondence or otherwise, to urge them to pray that a child of their own may be led into the Christian ministry.

Kingdom Enlistment Week

Kingdom Enlistment Week is an intensive evangelistic campaign based on modern psychological, pedagogical, and spiritual principles. It meets present day conditions and is par excellence in reviving the church, training workers, and winning souls for Christ and the church. Unprecedented things have happened in those churches where it has been observed within the last year. In eighteen churches, located in country, town, and city, there was an average of over seventy accessions to each. We here give a suggested program which your Executive Secretary follows out very closely in every detail.

6. Train the workers and form teams on Tuesday and Wednesday.
7. Distribute names of prospects at close of school on Wednesday night.
8. Do no personal work until 9:00 A. M. Thursday when all teams start.
9. Expect all who do personal work to attend the school and line up with a team.
10. Do not see prospects belonging to other workers.
11. Arrange for meals at church for workers.
12. Give every child a chance to confess Christ.
13. The list of prospects excels the present membership as a rule.
14. If you get one out of ten to do personal work you will not fail.
15. Ten prospects to a team is the average.
16. Four days to get ready. Four days to do the work.
17. One week, from Sunday to Sunday inclusive, is long enough to put on Kingdom Enlistment Week program.

Bureau of Christian Stewardship and Promotion

January 1, 1925, the Forward Movement as a temporary organization officially closed its work, and The Bureau of Christian Stewardship and Promotion became its successor, to carry on all work and plans not already provided for in the permanent organic life of the General Convention of the Christian Church, such as Stewardship, the collection of unpaid Forward Movement subscriptions, the securing of subscriptions for continuing the work begun, conference and local church organizational work and methods.

Rev. Warren H. Denison, D. D., is the Secretary of this Bureau and Mr. J. O. Winters is the Treasurer.

Department of Stewardship, Promotion and Social Service

Rev. Warren H. Denison, D. D., Secretary

The work of this department has been carried on in addition to the work of the Forward Movement. It has had therefore but part-time service of your Secretary. It has been the purpose of your Secretary to lay a strong and deep foundation for the permanent work of Christian Stewardship and Finance in the Christian Church. We have therefore had the following definite

Objectives

1. Help our brotherhood to realize the importance of stewardship in their personal spiritual lives; to recognize that the whole matter of giving and the use of money is a vital function of the soul, and of the spiritual life; making the spiritual content clear.
2. Secure the study of the Scriptures to find what they teach about Christian Stewardship; they are a veritable treatise on the principles of stewardship, and give clear instruction on both personal and church finance.
3. See that this most important matter, this neglected subject, gets its proper recognition in our thought, prayer, plans, program of life; giving it the same consideration that we do other great basic themes, such as missions, evangelism, Christian education, service, etc.
4. That each church observes the Stewardship-Finance period every year, putting on a real stewardship program in all departments of the church, apart from the raising of money; a real study of the whole subject, November and December being the stewardship months in our denominational church-year program. We suggest that no other part of our program be allowed to divide the church's attention during this period.

5. An annual every-member canvass in every church with a weekly offering and duplex envelopes. To help to do this in a proper way, we have issued a twenty-page booklet free for pastors, stewardship secretaries, and others interested.

6. Organizing a Stewardship-Finance Department in each Regional Convention, each conference, and in each local church, with an active Stewardship-Finance Secretary in charge.

7. A simultaneous every-member canvass by the churches of a conference annually.

8. Enlisting and enrolling tithers.

9. Induce giving in a right spirit and in a right proportion, so that the grace of giving may be developed.

10. Improved financial plans in the local churches and conferences.

11. Making clear the definitely accepted principles of Christian Stewardship.

12. Encouraging the churches to feel their full responsibility for the training of their young and their whole constituency, in stewardship of life and possessions.

13. See that the subject is regularly presented on convention, conference programs, and that special institutes are held.

Organization

Commendable progress has been made in the matter of securing Stewardship-Finance departments and secretaries in the conventions, conferences, and local churches. This takes time and we are seeking out the best fitted workers for these places.

Institutes

We have assisted the New Jersey Conference in a series of ten institutes, also the Rays Hill and Southern Pennsylvania Conference in a similar series, and the New York Eastern Conference in a five-day series. In many local churches, at conference sessions, and at the Defiance Pastors' School we have conducted such institutes. The summary of attendance and messages is given in the Forward Movement report and is not repeated here. We have sought to train workers in this line, so that the field might be covered more rapidly. Some of the Convention and conference Stewardship-Finance men are doing nicely.

We have assisted churches in their financial plans and campaign preparatory to opening, rededicating, and dedicating their houses of worship; helped organize local churches in their financial departments; directed and planned their every-member canvass; and assisted in raising church debts.

The expenses of the department were $2,300.48.

United Stewardship Council

This Council meets annually. It does very constructive work. It has set forth a statement of stewardship principles, sponsors a Stewardship Diary and Budget Account Book, has selected and caused to be published a set of eight mottoes, approves and issues Stewardship Study Books. It gathers the annual financial statistics of the denominations. Your secretary is a member.

Literature

Our office has distributed many thousands of stewardship pamphlets and assisted the churches and workers in securing suitable literature for occasions and in quantities. The columns of The Herald of Gospel Liberty, Christian Missionary, Journal of Christian Education, the Christian Sun, and The Sunday School Herald have been open to the Stewardship message in a most gratifying way.

Programs

The annual conferences and conference group meetings have given splendid co-operation in putting this subject on their programs. The Summer Schools are doing the same, until the message of Christian Stewardship is beginning to get the ear and heart of our people. More than ever the churches and pastors are planning for a worthy program during November and December.

Promotional

We have promoted every approved object and activity of the Christian Church. We have emphasized the plans and objectives of the General Convention and Board. We have stressed the importance of the work allotted to each period of the church year. We have held conferences with groups of workers, counseled with conference and church officials, promoted better church organization, stressed the necessity of loyalty to our institutions, colleges, literature, officary, convention, and conference plans. We have sought greater co-operation, better efficiency, and more simplicity in all our work as a church.

Proceedings of the Executive Board of The General Convention of the Christian Church

In this report is not mentioned the several times the Board adjourned, or took recess, nor the reading of and adoption of the minutes, etc. They are routine matters, and are omitted in order to economize space.

Dayton, Ohio, October 15, 1924.

The Executive Board of The General Convention of the Christian Church met in its regular annual session in Dayton, Ohio, October 15, 1924. The session was called to order at ten a. m., in Room Number Forty-four, of The Christian Publishing Association Building, by Rev. F. G. Coffin, President of the General Convention. The members present were Rev. F. G. Coffin, Rev. D. B. Atkinson, Rev. J. F. Burnett, Mr. John G. Myers, Hon. O. W. Whitelock, Dr. W. A. Harper, Rev. Roy C. Helfenstein, Rev. C. H. Rowland, Rev. E. A. Watkins, Rev. W. P. Minton, and Rev. O. S. Thomas.

Prayer was offered by Rev. E. A. Watkins.

The Secretary submitted a report covering the activities of the Board, and the Convention office, during the year. The report contained an itemized report of the administrative expenses for the year, and showed that nineteen different accounts had been handled, and $51,900.01 in money received and disbursed. The books and accounts were verified by the auditors and certified correct.

It also showed that unusual care had been taken in the preparation of the call, and additional expense incurred, in an effort to interest all of our pastors and churches in the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. The reminder call was in the form of a personal letter from the President of the Convention. Offerings from 135 churches, amounting to $583.54, and from sixteen individuals, amounting to $54.50 had been received. The total amount received was $638.04. We have on the roll 965 churches, 135 of them giving an average of $3.74½ to this call. Had the other 830 given as much, there would have been added to the offering from the churches, $3,107.35, making a total offering from the churches of $3,690.35.

Referring to the Convention fund the report stated that less than half of the churches enrolled in the conferences of the Convention responded to the call for funds, and but few more than half the conferences responded.

It showed that a call had been mailed to the ministers and church clerks, as authorized by the Convention, at Burlington, N. C., in the interest of the Aged Ministers' Home. That this call had been followed up with a Reminder Call. That during the year 228 churches responded to the call, remitting $5,737.27. That in addition to the offering from the churches, forty personal gifts were received, varying in amounts from one dollar to one thousand. The total amount received was $7,247.52. That the gentleman who promised Five Thousand Dollars, when twenty thousand had been paid, had paid $2,500.00 of the amount, and was ready and willing to pay the remaining $2,500.00, when the twenty thousand had been raised.

That great care had been taken to inform the pastors and churches concerning the time for the offering to the Near East Relief Fund, and the importance of remitting it through the Convention Office. Only a small number of churches and Sunday-schools heeded the call, remitting $2,730.55. The report stated that many of our churches had made large offerings to the Relief Funds, but had allowed the general relief workers to carry their offerings away with them, or later had sent them to the General Relief Committee. These General Relief workers had also gone into our churches at the times of the regular offerings to missions, and other lines of work due, and in many instances the offering they insisted upon interfered with the offering then due to be taken by the church.

Offerings had been received for the General Convention Fund from 357 churches, aggregating $2,855.22, and that thirty-five conferences remitted offerings to the General Convention Fund, amounting to $651.83.

The report was considered and adopted and is filed in the Records of 1924.

In the matter of Union Christian College, Rev. E. A. Watkins, President of the College, made a verbal statement of the condition of the College at the present time. No action was taken.

Hon. O. W. Whitelock moved that in the matter of the property willed to the Convention by Nathaniel Showmaker, of Illinois, that the Convention Secretary be authorized and empowered to proceed according to his judgment to bring the matter to a final settlement. Motion seconded and adopted.

Moved by O. W. Whitelock that in the matter of the property willed to the Convention by Mrs. Sarah J. Malmsbury, of Christiansburg, Ohio, that the Secretary of the Convention be authorized and empowered to care for the interests of the Convention according to the law of the State, and the provision of the will, and, if necessary, to employ an attorney. Motion seconded and carried.

Rev. D. B. Atkinson offered the following resolution, and moved its adoption:

Resolved, that the Commission on Christian Unity be authorized to promote a Christian Unity Day, including an offering for the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

The motion was seconded and carried.

It was moved by O. W. Whitelock that an additional offering be taken for the Aged Ministers' Home, and that as a special emergency it be taken on Mothers' Day. Motion seconded and carried.

The resignation of Mr. J. E. West, as a delegate member of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, as reported by the Secretary, was accepted, and the delegate membership remain at five.

O. W. Whitelock offered the following resolution, and moved its adoption:

Resolved, that we continue to take the offering for the Near East Relief Fund, through our regular channels, as authorized by the Convention in session at Burlington, N. C., October, 1922, and that we discourage any offering taken under any other auspices, and that this offering be taken in our churches on Golden Rule Sunday.

Motion seconded and carried.

Voted to instruct the Investment Committee to investigate the rate of interest paid on savings deposits, and to invest the savings fund to the best advantage, both as to the rate of interests, and the safety of the funds.

J. F. Burnett presented his resignation as a member of the Committee on Army and Navy Chaplains, which was accepted, and Rev. Roy C. Helfenstein was elected to fill the vacancy.

The resignation of Mr. F. R. Beach, as a member of the Permanent Committee on International Relief, was read. It was voted to ask Mr. Beach to withdraw his resignation, and to continue to serve as the chairman of the committee, and our representative in the General International Relief Committee.

Dr. W. A. Harper offered the following resolution, and moved its adoption:

Resolved, that a committee on the budget plan be appointed to investigate and report at this session.

Motion to adopt seconded and carried, and the President announced the following named committeemen—W. A. Harper, Elon College, N. C., O. S. Thomas, Dayton, Ohio, W. P. Minton, Dayton, Ohio.

Rev. Roy C. Helfenstein, Secretary for the Department of Evangelism and Life Service, offered a series of resolutions, which were amended and adopted as follows:

The Board of Evangelism and Life Service submits the following resolutions:

1. That the Department of Evangelism and Life Service be permitted to draw upon Forward Movement funds for any deficit occurring in its work, the same to be payable monthly, with the understanding that this Board operate on the basis of its budget approved by the General Boards, and with the understanding that this department begin at once to sustain its work by offerings from fields served, and offerings from other sources approved by the General Board.

2. In connection with this, the Department of Evangelism and Life Service requests the permission of the Executive Board to take an offering the second Sunday in December, this year.

The Department of Evangelism submitted a budget of $6,000.00 for the year, and asked the approval of the Board. Several plans were suggested, and discussed, relative to the work of the Department of Evangelism, and the closing of the Forward Movement, which resulted in the adoption of the following resolution, offered by Rev. O. S. Thomas:

Inasmuch as the present organization of the Forward Movement, known as the Department of Stewardship and Promotion, has started a campaign for the continuation of the pledges of the Forward Movement, and has developed plans for the promotion of stewardship among the churches, therefore be it resolved, that this department be continued on the same basis and organization on which it now operates, under the direction of the Executive Board, until the next General Convention, and that this department be the successor to the Forward Movement in every particular, and that it be known as the Bureau of Stewardship and Promotion.

The following matter, offered by Rev. George C. Enders, Dean of the Divinity School, Defiance College, Defiance, Ohio, was submitted for consideration:

Therefore it seems to me that the Christian denomination should fully and frankly investigate the Christian Divinity School as a factor in our system of Christian education in the hope of securing a united support for the policy that would be based upon the results of such investigation. With this in view I would respectfully recommend that this Board request the President of The General Convention of the Christian Church to appoint a special commission on ministerial education charged with the duty of ascertaining the status of the Christian Divinity School in the work of modern Christian Education.

Rev. R. C. Helfenstein offered the following resolution, and moved its adoption:

Resolved, That the Executive Committee appoint a commission of five, for the purpose of making a thorough investigation and survey of the courses offered by our schools for ministerial training, and that said commission make its investigation and survey with the idea in mind of recommending to the Executive Committee relative to the courses our colleges and divinity schools should provide for ministerial students.

Motion to adopt seconded and carried.

The Board then adjourned subject to the call of the President.

Voted that Rev. Alva M. Kerr and Rev. J. F. Burnett attend the World Alliance for International Peace Through the Churches, meeting in Buffalo, N. Y., in November, the expense to be borne by the Convention and The Christian Publishing Association.

Rev. R. C. Helfenstein offered the following resolution, and moved its adoption: (resolution previously prepared by Dr. Coffin)

Resolved, that the Executive Board approve the budget of six thousand dollars set by the Department of Evangelism and Life Service for its work of the coming year and that:

1. The Department be urged to raise the funds for its work as largely as possible from the churches in which evangelistic campaigns are conducted under its supervision.

2. The amount to be paid from the treasury of the Forward Movement, or its successor in function shall in no case exceed a total of $3,500.00 for the coming year, and only such part of this to be paid as shall be the difference between the income of the Department from other sources and its actual bills of operation, and that since the Department has already agreed to become self-supporting next year, the provisions made at this Board meeting for the financing of this department shall apply only for the present year.

3. The Department to inaugurate such a system of accounting as shall be recommended by the official auditors of the General Convention, all books and accounts to be audited regularly as are other convention accounts.

Motion to adopt seconded and carried.

The President submitted the following report:

Report of the President of
The General Convention of the Christian Church
October 1, 1923 - September 30, 1924.

The work of the president for the past year has differed in few respects from that of preceding years. Outside of his executive duties, the character of which may be inferred from the report of the convention secretary, he has officiated at special events such as dedications, organizations, reopenings, ordinations, anniversaries, etc., among the churches, and represented the convention at conferences of our own body, and in interdenominational gatherings.

In the conferences of the Western Christian Convention he has represented both Palmer College and the General Convention in the same visitation, dividing the expense of such visitation equally between the two.

In the conduct of his office he has traveled 21,694 miles during the year, attended forty-two conferences and conventions, and spoken in sixteen different States, delivering 178 addresses. The total cost for the year has been $2,112.65, of which $1,500.00 has been salary, and $612.65 including all other items of expense. There has been remitted to the convention treasury about $250.00 from these field efforts.

Moved and seconded to accept Dr. Coffin's report, and extend to him a vote of thanks. Motion carried.

Rev. O. S. Thomas moved that the next annual meeting of the Executive Board be called to meet on Monday afternoon, October 19, 1925, at 2:00 o'clock. Motion seconded and adopted.

The report of the Secretary of Finance was read. Report adopted and filed in records of 1924.

The auditor's report was read. Report adopted and filed in records of 1924.

Rev. E. A. Watkins offered the following resolution, and moved its adoption:

Be it resolved by the Executive Board of The General Convention of the Christian Church that the special committee appointed in the interest of Union Christian College proceed to secure such endorsement as may be available among the college trustees, and other interested persons, and to employ such legal counsel as may be necessary, and to secure an enabling act of the State Legislature, looking toward perpetuating the College elsewhere, as an institution of higher learning for the Christian Church.

The resolution was seconded and adopted.

It was voted that Rev. F. G. Coffin, President of the General Convention, be our representative in the Foreign Mission Convention meeting in Washington, D. C., during January and February, 1925.

The commissioners, as provided for in a resolution at a previous session, were elected as follows:

Rev. W. G. Sargent, Providence, R. I.
Rev. George C. Enders, Defiance, Ohio.
Mr. W. P. Lawrence, Elon College, N. C.
Rev. D. B. Atkinson, Albany, Mo.
Rev. E. A. Watkins, Urbana, Ill.

It was moved and seconded that Rev. Warren H. Denison be elected Secretary for the Bureau of Christian Stewardship and Promotion, at a salary of three thousand dollars a year, and that J. O. Winters be elected treasurer of the said organization. Motion carried.

It was voted that the salary of the Convention Secretary be three thousand dollars a year.

Voted that the expense of the meeting be paid.

Proceedings of the General Board of the Christian Church

Dayton, Ohio, October 16, 1924.

The General Board of the Christian Church met in its regular annual session in Dayton, Ohio, October 16, 1924. The session was called to order at 10:00 a. m., in the Chapel of The Christian Publishing Association Building, with Rev. F. G. Coffin, President of the General Convention presiding.

Prayer was offered by Rev. J. N. Dales.

The Mission Board, not yet having finished its work, requested the General Board to adjourn until the afternoon. The request was granted, and the Board adjourned to meet in Room 2 of the Y. M. C. A. Building, at 1:30 p. m.

Dayton, Ohio, October 16, 1924.

The General Board of the Christian Church met in Room Number Two, Y. M. C. A. Building, Dayton, Ohio, Thursday, October 16, 1924, at 1:30 p. m. Rev. F. G. Coffin, President of the Convention, presided.

Rev. Martyn Summerbell offered prayer.

Rev. O. S. Thomas, Secretary for the Department of Home Missions, submitted the report of the Department of Home Missions.

Rev. W. H. Denison, President of the General Mission Board, introduced Rev. L. C. Fletcher, and wife, who had been accepted and appointed missionaries to Japan.

The report of the Home Mission Board was submitted by Mrs. Athella M. Howsare.

Rev. W. P. Minton, Secretary for the Department of Foreign Missions, submitted the report of the Department of Foreign Missions.

Dr. W. A. Harper, Secretary for the Department of Christian Education, submitted the report of the Department of Christian Education. He also gave the report of the Board of Christian Education.

Rev. D. B. Atkinson offered the following resolution, and moved its adoption:

I move that the financial program adopted by The General Convention of the Christian Church, at Burlington, N. C., be substituted for the financial program of the report of the Board of Christian Education.

The motion to adopt was not seconded, but the motion is recorded here for the sake of information.

Hon. O. W. Whitelock was called to the chair, and presided a short while.

Dr. W. A. Harper, Secretary for the Department of Christian Education, submitted an amendment for the Department, which pledged the Department to raise ten thousand dollars each for Defiance and Palmer Colleges, through the year, with the co-operation of the institutions mentioned. Motion to amend accepted.

Hon. O. W. Whitelock, Secretary for the Department of Publications, submitted the report of the Department of Publications.

Rev. A. M. Kerr, Editor of The Herald of Gospel Liberty, submitted a report of progress, character, and possibilities of the paper.

Rev. Roy C. Helfenstein, Secretary for the Department of Evangelism and Life Service, submitted the report of the Department of Evangelism and Life Service.

The Board then adjourned to meet in Room Number Two, Y. M. C. A. Building, Dayton, Ohio, October 17, 1924, at 9:30 a. m.

Dayton, Ohio, October 17, 1924.

The General Board of the Christian Church met in Room Number Two, Y. M. C. A. Building, Dayton, Ohio, at 9:30 a. m., Thursday, October 17, 1924, with President Coffin presiding.

The minutes of Thursday's session were read and approved.

Rev. W. H. Denison, Secretary for the Department of Christian Stewardship, Promotion and Social Service, submitted the reports of these departments.

Rev. W. H. Denison, Superintendent of the Forward Movement, submitted the report of the Movement.

The Convention Secretary submitted the report of the Executive Board of the General Convention.

The Commission on Christian Unity reported, through its Chairman, Rev. F. G. Coffin.

Voted that the committee appointed by the Executive Board make report to the General Board at this time. Motion carried, and Rev. O. S. Thomas submitted the following report, and moved its adoption:

Your Committee on Budget begs leave to submit the following suggested budget for the different Boards:

Foreign Missions	$90,000
Home Missions	80,000
Christian Education	60,000
Evangelism	5,000
General Convention	10,000
Miscellaneous	5,000

We recommend that the Bureau of Christian Stewardship and Promotion at once begin devoting its special attention toward putting the Every-member Canvass and the Budget System into conferences and churches, with the thought that this is our most important financial aim at the present time.

We recommend that a committee, of which the Superintendent of the Bureau of Christian Stewardship and Promotion shall be the chairman, shall apportion to the conferences the total amount of the $250,000 budget suggested, said apportionment to be based upon a consideration of the value of the church property, pastor's salary, membership of the church, and previous giving.

We further recommend that the Bureau of Christian Stewardship and Promotion, in co-operation with the conference officials, organize the churches of the conferences for a simultaneous conference campaign for the Every-Member Canvass in each local church, the same to be conducted immediately preceding the close of the conference year.

And we further recommend that the budget shall be raised by seasons during the periods as follows:

General Convention—January.

Foreign Missions—February, March, April.

Evangelism—May.

Home Missions—June, July, August.

Christian Education—September, October, November.

Miscellaneous—December.

Nothing in this report should be interpreted as discouraging any church from percentaging its offerings, which we consider the ideal.

W. A. HARPER,
OMER S. THOMAS,
W. P. MINTON.

O. W. Whitelock was called to the chair. Dr Coffin offered the following resolution, and moved its adoption:

I move that the report of the Committee on Budget be transmitted by the Secretary of the Convention to every member of the General Board, in order that each member may consider the same in the light of the experience of the coming year, and that the vote on the same be delayed until the Board meeting next year.

Motion to adopt was seconded and carried.

Rev. F. G. Coffin offered the following resolution, and moved its adoption:

That the Bureau of Christian Stewardship and Promotion, in conjunction with other departments of the church, be instructed to conduct an intensive campaign during the coming year, and that in every church possible an Every-member Canvass be put on.

Further we suggest that this campaign be conducted simultaneously in the local conferences immediately preceding the annual session wherever practicable.

Motion to adopt seconded and carried.

Moved and seconded that the General Board of the Christian Church meet on Thursday, following the third Sunday in October. Carried.

Mr. Hermon Eldredge moved that the word "Christian" be inserted before the word "Stewardship," so that it would read "Christian Stewardship." Motion carried.

Rev. R. C. Helfenstein offered the following resolution, and moved its adoption:

Resolved, that the New England Convention be notified that their resolution relative to a union between the Congregational and Christian Churches was considered by the General Board, and that said Board is awaiting the reply from the Congregational Church relative to their attitude toward said Convention.

Motion to adopt seconded and carried.

Dr. W. A. Harper, Secretary for the Department of Christian Education, asked permission for the Department of Christian Education to take its offering for Christian Education on Rally Day. Voted to give him permission.

Moved and seconded that a committee of five on Objective and Appeal be appointed. Motion carried, and the President announced the following named committeemen: Mr. Hermon Eldredge, Rev. O. S. Thomas, Rev. W. P. Minton, Rev. J. F. Burnett, Rev. Alva M. Kerr.

On motion all the reports that had been submitted and mentioned in the proceedings were adopted.

Voted to refer all unfinished business to the Executive Board.

The General Board then adjourned with closing prayer by Rev. W. S. Alexander.

NOTE: The following reports were given the Convention Secretary, and are filed for reference:

- Convention Secretary's report.

COLLEGES

Defiance College and Christian Divinity School

DEFIANCE, OHIO

Defiance is the educational center for the Christians of the North and East. The attendance for the past two years has steadily increased and has been practically up to capacity. The registration of September, 1924, indicates an increase especially in the number of students from Christian Church communities.

In June, 1924, forty-nine young people were graduated with the degree, Bachelor of Arts, and one with the degree, Bachelor of Divinity. Twenty of the fifty were preparing for professional Christian service.

The equipment of the college including campus, buildings, library, laboratories, gymnasiums, etc., is new and ample for the students now being cared for. Increases in all these are necessary to care for the increased attendance which the college is very likely to have if these additions are made.

The scholastic standing is a source of pride. Defiance is a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and of the Ohio College Association. In addition to this she has the full recognition as a standard college.

The endowment is not so large as it should be. The present total is over $450,000.00 with approximately $200,000.00 in unpaid pledges from the endowment campaigns in hand to be added as paid. This must be increased to continue to maintain the high standing.

The faculty is carefully chosen. All are consecrated Christians and are well prepared with college and university training.

THE COLLEGE offers the regular courses usually offered in a college of Arts and Sciences with opportunity for strong courses in Music, Home Economics, Elementary and Secondary Education, Expression, Business Administration; Students are accepted for pre-engineering and pre-medic courses.

THE CHRISTIAN DIVINITY SCHOOL offers a regular seminary course leading to the postgraduate degree and supervises a collegiate course for prospective ministers.

The life of the campus is wholesome and Christian organizations exert very helpful influences.

NOTE—For a number of years the College has been embarrassed because of a lack of support in funds and students. At a special meeting of the Board of Trustees on August 12, 1924, after the most careful consideration, it was decided to suspend operations for the coming year. The doors of the institution are thus closed temporarily, awaiting future developments. The Corporation is kept intact. E. A. Watkins, of Urbana, Ill., was elected President and Daniel O. Gettinger, of Merom, Indiana, Secretary, and M. S. Campbell of Collison, Ill., Treasurer. An Executive Committee will take care of all business arising during the interim between Trustee meetings. Later information on page 12.

This school is beautifully located in a grove, part of a tract of land lying along the Seaboard Air Line Railway, twenty-eight miles north of Raleigh and one mile north of the corporate limits of the town of Franklinton, N. C. This tract of land consists of eight-two and one-half acres, with a good spring of water and a deep well which affords an abundant supply of pure water.

The aim of this school is to teach the boys and girls that they must be producers; the boys to produce two ears of corn where one has grown before and two bales of cotton where one has grown before, two bushels of potatoes where one has grown before; and our girls to wash and iron well and to cook a good meal of victuals, to wear a calico dress and common sense shoes and to wear them like a queen.

At the last annual session, held at West Liberty, November 9-10, 1922, action was taken to the effect that it is the sense of the association that if its assets can be properly and safely safeguarded, the executive board shall take over the business of the association and that the annual sessions should be discontinued. The prevailing sentiment is that the assets and responsibilities of the association should be taken over by the regional Central Christian Convention, provided it can be done legally. In the meantime the executive board is conducting the affairs of the association, meeting semi-annually.

Deceased Ministers

How they have fared we can not know
Till we, too, clasp Death's hand and go,
When sight shall fail and earth grow dim,
As they did, into silence grim,
From which no answer greets our cry,
And only echoes rise and die.

Yet Hope and Faith, like prophets, bide
By Christian graves, on either side,
And with assured, undoubting men
Point upward, confident, serene,
Declaring, "Death will conquered be
By Life and Immortality."

Mrs. John N. Dales

John N. Dales is now the Superintendent of the Aged Ministers' Home, Lakemont, N. Y., and Mrs. Dales is matron. They come from their Canadian home, Drayton, Ontario, where they are held in high respect, and being well known to the entire Christian Brotherhood they will enter upon their task with the same high regards and confidence from the people of the States which they so well merited and enjoyed in the land of their birth. Professor Dales has filled responsible places in Ontario Conference for many years, and has been a member of the Board of Trustees of The Christian Publishing Association for more than a quarter of a century.

John N. Dales

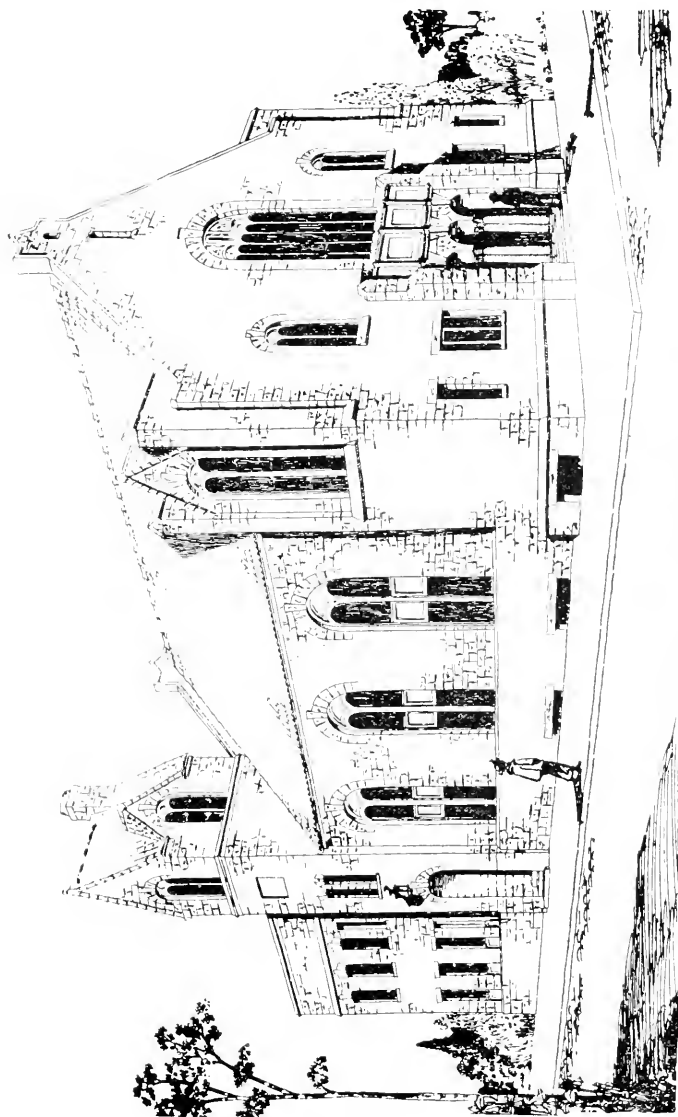

Rev. Mrs. Georgia Bernard Weaton
New York Eastern Conference

Her death was occasioned by an accident April 24. She had been to a W. C. T. U. gathering at Albany, New York, and was returning home when in some unknown manner her wagon was plunged off a high bridge into a shallow creek, where her body was later discovered. She had been active in the W. C. T. U., having been president of the county organization of Otsego County, New York, from 1904 to 1916. Later she served three years as State Evangelist for the W. C. T. U. in New York State.

As a Christian minister she held only two regular charges, that of Quaker Street, New York, from 1916 to 1919 during which time, June 3, 1917, she was ordained by the New York Eastern Conference at the annual session held at Medway.

The last years of her life she was pastor of the Christian Church at East Cobleskill, and also served the Huntersland Church as a supply.

She was the author of many beautiful poems but as they were never compiled in permanent form they make no special contribution to literature and will live only in the hearts of her friends who hold them dear.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH, RALEIGH, N. C.

First Christian Church, Raleigh, N. C., Eastern North Carolina Conference. Rev. William Davidson Parry pastor. Opened for service Sunday, November 23, 1924. Dr. W. A. Harper, president of Elon College, delivered the opening sermon. Rev. W. C. Wicker preached in the afternoon and Rev. J. O. Atkinson in the evening.

Carversville Christian Orphanage

Rev. Lindsay F. Johnson, Superintendent

Very few institutions of the Christian Church have made better progress than the new orphanage at Carversville. There has been a very liberal response from our people for this worthy institution. In answer to prayer and faith every real necessary need has been supplied. Liberal donations of food, money, and clothing have been made during the year. The institution is in first-class condition, has a fine outlook and a very bright future. At the end of the second year there were twenty wards in the home from five different States of the Union. The organization has ample housing accommodations to supply the needs of the Church for many years. Additional improvements and more land will be needed as the institution grows. The whole church is getting behind the orphanage work, and a great service is being rendered in the interest of our orphans and dependent children.

The institution is managed by a Board of Trustees selected from Eastern and Western Christian Conferences. The personnel of the Board this year serving till the second Wednesday in July Annual Election is: F. R. Beach, Irvington, N. J.; J. Elliott Epright, Milford, N. J.; A. F. Foor, Everett, Pa.; E. F. Fancher, Albion, N. Y.; T. P. Garland, Needmore, Pa.; E. C. Griffin, Ravena, N. Y.; W. H. Hainer, Irvington, N. J.; J. B. Hagans, Magnetic Springs, Ohio. A. W. Housser, Eldorado, Ill.; L. F. Johnson, Carversville, Pa.; Frank V. Rinehart, Bridgeport, Pa.; Miss Eliza Ryan, Cambridge Springs, Pa.; W. R. Sailer, Milford, N. J.; Frank Stanton, South Westerlo, N. Y.; B. L. Shaffer, Frazeyburg, Ohio; Nicholas Weber, Irvington, N. J.

WILLIAM H. HAINER, Chairman
Board of Trustees, Irvington, N. J.

LINDSAY F. JOHNSON, President,
Carversville, Pa.

FRANK R. BEACH, Secretary, and Treasurer, Irvington, N. J.

Martha L. Denison

The summer immediately following her graduation, in June, 1924, Miss Denison served the Shiloh Church, Dayton, Ohio, as Director of Religious Education. She is now at the head of Religious Education, in the People's Christian Church, Dover, Delaware.

The Christian Orphanage, Elon College, N. C.

Charles D. Johnston, Superintendent

The Christian Orphanage, Elon College, N. C., an institution of the Christian denomination, opened its doors for the admittance of children January 1, 1907, and since that time two hundred and forty-eight fatherless and homeless children have had a home there. One hundred and nine are now in its care. It is managed by a Board of seven trustees elected by the Southern Christian Convention. Mr. W. K. Holt of Burlington, N. C., is chairman. Chas. D. Johnston, Elon College, N. C., is Secretary-Treasurer and Superintendent.

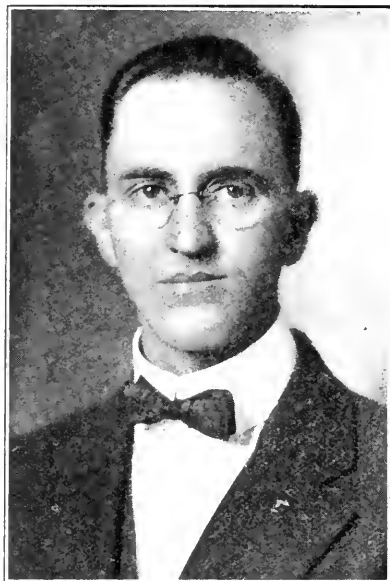

It has two large brick buildings where the children have a happy home. Its property value is $100,000.00 with $21,000.00 endowment. We have one hundred and eighty acres of farm land. About ninety acres open and in cultivation. The boys are taught agriculture, dairying, trucking, hog raising, shoe repairing, etc. The girls are taught all kinds of domestic work, sewing, dressmaking, cooking, laundrying, and many other things. All the children go to school nine months in the year. Most of them finish high school before reaching eighteen years of age and some get from one to two years in College. It is a home for the fatherless and homeless. It is supported entirely by freewill offerings. We ask Sunday-schools to make monthly offerings. The churches and Sunday-schools are asked to make special Thanksgiving and Easter offerings and individual offerings are highly appreciated. Many of the Ladies' Aid Societies make dresses for the girls and little suits for boys, which is a great help to us in the work.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH, ORONOQUE, KANSAS

Rev. C. E. Huff, Pastor

The new Oronoque Christian Church was dedicated March 9, 1921. Rev. C. E. Huff, pastor, Rev. F. G. Coffin, D. D., President of The General Convention of the Christian Church, officiating. Two years before the former church building had been destroyed by fire. Following this was a period of financial depression, which added to the difficulty of rebuilding, but courage, faith, and determination prevailed.

Rev. Raymond G. Clark, Pastor
Christian Church, Huntington, Ind.

Graduated from Palmer College Academy; spent one year at Simpson College (Methodist) Indianola, Iowa. Received the degree of A. B. at Des Moines University (Baptist) 1921. Received the degree of M. A. at Defiance College 1922. He studied two years at the Yale Divinity School and received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity in June 1924. Took prizes in oratory at Palmer and Simpson Colleges, and a prize in Salesmanship in Des Moines University. Taught Psychology in Defiance Summer School. Taught Psychology in New Haven, Conn., in a college affiliated with Yale Divinity School. In connection with his college work he pastored churches in Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Indiana, Ohio, and New York. Became pastor of the First Christian Church, Huntington, Indiana, August 1, 1924.

Bethany Memorial Christian Church, Lynn, Massachusetts

Rev. Flora M. Neagles

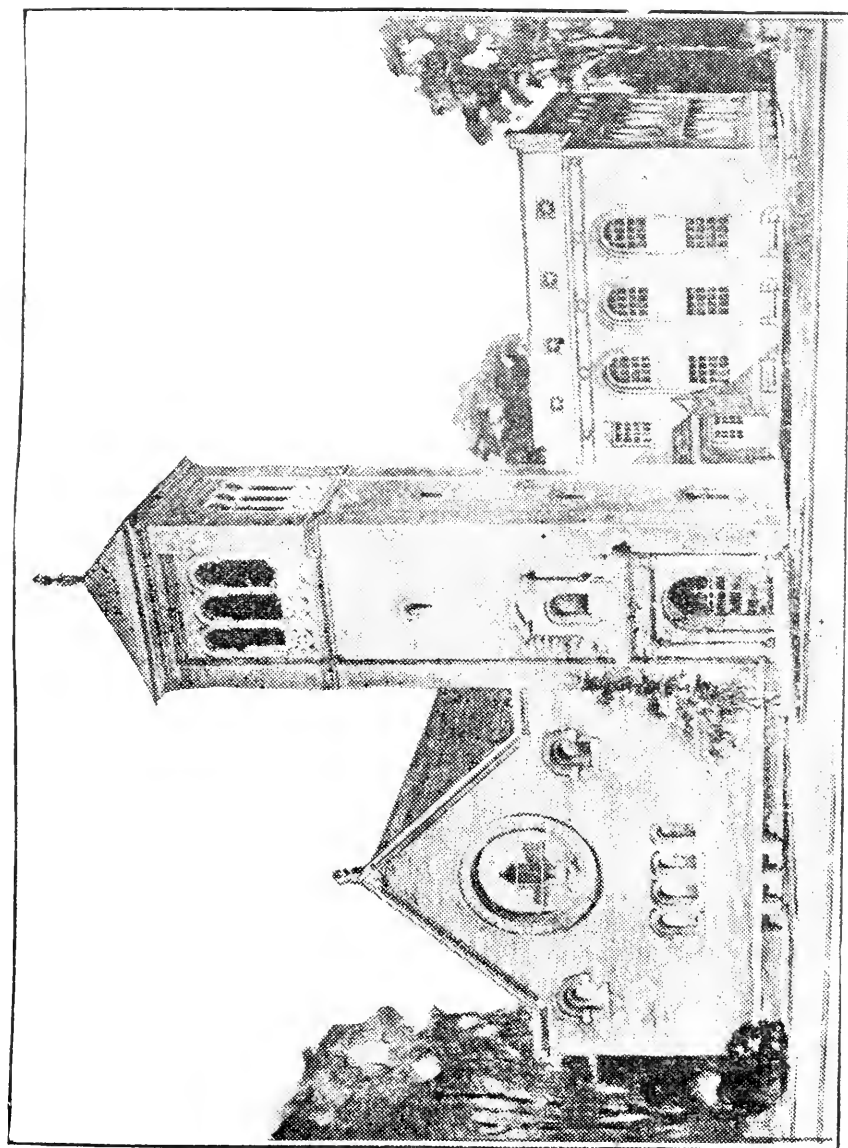

The building was re-modeled, refurnished and rededicated, under the pastoral care of Rev. Flora M. Neagles. The dedicatory service was held on Sunday evening, March 2. Those present, and having part in the service were Rev. Herbert M. Hainer, of New Bedford, Rev. W. G. Sargent, D. D., and the pastor, Rev. Flora M. Neagles. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Hainer and the dedicatory prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Sargent, after which the benediction was given by Rev. Miss Neagles.

Rev. George Benton Garner

Rev. George Benton Garner was born in Ohio, in 1850, and ordained a minister in the Christian Church, on October 5, 1874, and on October 5, 1924, the fiftieth anniversary of the ordination was celebrated by the Christian Church in Cairo, Ohio, of which he is pastor. He has the distinction of having spent the entire time of his ministry in pastoral service. He preached his first sermon at St. Johns, Ohio, in May, 1870, from the text "I find no fault in this man." From his first pastorate, until now, not a moment of time has passed that he has not been pastor of some church.

The church at Cairo paid high tribute to Dr. Garner in the celebration. The sermon of the occasion was by Dr. Garner, subject, "Fifty Years an Ordained Minister." In the picture the church represents the type of building in which he preached in his early life, and especially the one in which he preached his first sermon. It is the picture of a real cake, which his wife had prepared. It was in the shape of a church, and weighed twenty pounds. It was surrounded with a lawn of grass, in which stood fifty candles, representing the fifty years of ministerial service. On the top of the church steeple was a cross of gold. On one arm of the cross were the figures, 1874, and on the other the figures, 1924. Dr. Garner is, and has always been a member of the Northwestern Ohio Conference. Was a student in Union Christian College, and received his degree of Doctor of Divinity, from Findlay College, in 1913.

Christian Church, Dover, Delaware. Rev. Roy C. Helfenstein, D. D., Pastor

Rev. Roy C. Helfenstein, D. D.
Pastor People's Christian Church,
Dover, Delaware

People's Church of Dover, Delaware, has within the past year erected and equipped one of the most modern church plants in the entire country, authorities in Religious Education declaring that the Sunday-school feature of the plant might easily be classed as one of the two best co-ordinated and equipped Departmental Sunday-school buildings constructed thus far.

The building program included the complete rebuilding of the old church and the erection of a large Community Center and Sunday-school Building, as well as a beautiful Memorial Chimes Tower.

The total cost of the building and equipment was something over $150,000. The church has a fine pipe organ, a set of tubular chimes, standard gymnasium, shower bathroom, bowling alleys, separate assembly rooms for each Sunday-school Department, separate rooms for each Sunday-school class, and clubrooms for the young people. There are thirty-five rooms in all in the building.

People's Church supports a native missionary in Japan

The Sunday-school is completely graded and is organized along the most modern lines, Mr. Hermon Eldredge and Mrs. F. E. Bullock, of the Board of Christian Education, having had charge of the reorganization work.

The church has two Missionary Societies, a Brotherhood, a Boy's Club, and several organized Sunday-school classes. Church Night programs are held on Wednesday night, the women of the church being divided into eight circles of service, each circle taking its turn in furnishing supper on Church Night, at cost.

Miss Martha L. Denison is the Director of Religious Education for People's Church. Mr. John B. Hutton, a prominent attorney, is the General Superintendent of the Sunday-school.

The Christian Service Home
New American Work

THE NEW AMERICAN MISSION

Marguerite Youmans, Director New American Work

The first attendants of the New American Mission were remnants of what had been an Italian Mission, conducted by the Baptists. When this disbanded, our denomination, whose church at Haverhill is located in the heart of the foreign section, took up the opportunity for service. The Home Mission Board financed and directed the new project with Miss Frieda Kirkendall as director.

From a handful of Italian children the work has grown until through all organizations three hundred families are reached. From one nationality the group has enlarged, including Armenians, Greeks, Russians, Polish, Lithuanians, French, and Hebrews.

The mission quarters were first located in the upper floor of the parsonage. Circumstances made it necessary for the mission work to have a permanent location, and one large enough to meet the needs. This prompted the purchase of the Christian Service Home. It is located directly opposite from the parsonage and ideally situated for Americanization work.

Here a small but well selected library is open to children during after-school hours and Saturdays. Four different groups meet here weekly, i. e., Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Busy Bee Club, and Sewing Class. Volunteer workers from the Armenian and Italian groups serve as leaders of these organizations.

Home and evening classes in English are conducted for the mothers and fathers. Thirty-five women were enrolled in 1923-24 in English classes. Ten men attended evening classes. The classes are held biweekly.

The adults who have acquired enough English attend the American church service. Five men are members of the church. About twenty children from the Mission Sunday-school have joined the church.

The greatest influence comes through the Church School. It is small but efficiently organized and graded. The enrollment from September, 1923, to September, 1924, was one hundred twenty, with an average attendance of sixty. Ninety dollars and twenty-one cents in offering was sent to Home and Foreign Missions. Since September, 1924, twenty-seven new pupils have enrolled.

The program is similar to that of an American school, with the exception of social activities. Community work demands more of parties and entertainment. The church has a moving picture equipment. Educational films are shown several Sunday evenings during the winter months.

The socials are cosmopolitan groups. Sociability between different nationalities is encouraged.

Riverdale Christian Church, Dayton, Ohio,
Miami Ohio Conference

Rev. Edwin B. Flory, Pastor

The Riverdale Christian Church was organized, and Rev. Edwin B. Flory installed as pastor, on Sunday, February 3, 1924. The above is a temporary building, which has been erected for use of the membership, but which is already inadequate for the rapidly growing congregation, and steadily increasing Sunday-school. This building has eight separate rooms and a church seating capacity of 450. It was entered on a rainy Sunday, May 4, with 240 at Sunday-school. From that day to this there has been a steady increase until the present enrollment is 372 in the Church School and promises of 400 in the near future. An addition, 50x32, is now under way which will provide excellent rooms for the Cradle Roll, the Beginners, and the Primary departments. There will be space for two classes of each age in the Beginners and Primary, and ample room for their own worship services. The removal of these three departments from the present building will make possible a separate Junior Department with six classes, one for boys and girls of each age therein.

The completed building will easily care for a Church School of 650 with an auditorium of 450 when necessary. It will make possible a kitchen and a dining room to seat 168. The adult men and women will have separate class rooms, three in all, and have ample space for 200. This will leave the church room for the Intermediates and young people, of whom there are more than a hundred now enrolled.

There were one hundred and forty-nine persons enrolled in the original membership. Total enrollment now, 257. On the occasion of organizing, Rev. Frank G. Coffin, D. D., President of the General Christian Convention, preached the sermon, and Rev. J. F. Burnett, Secretary of the Convention, conducted the formal organization and installation of the pastor.

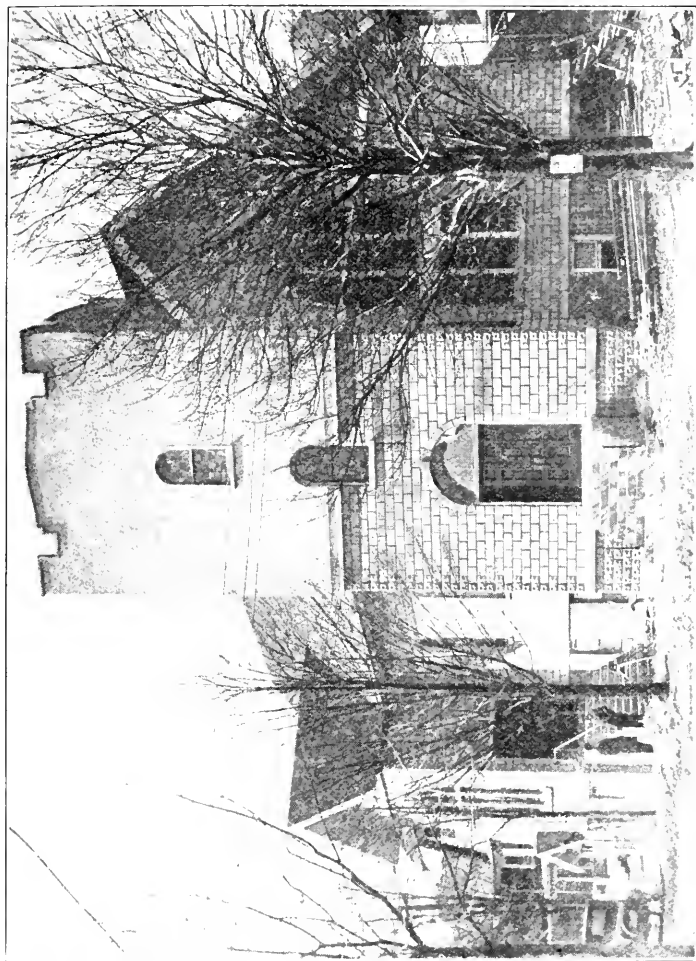

Edwin B. Flory

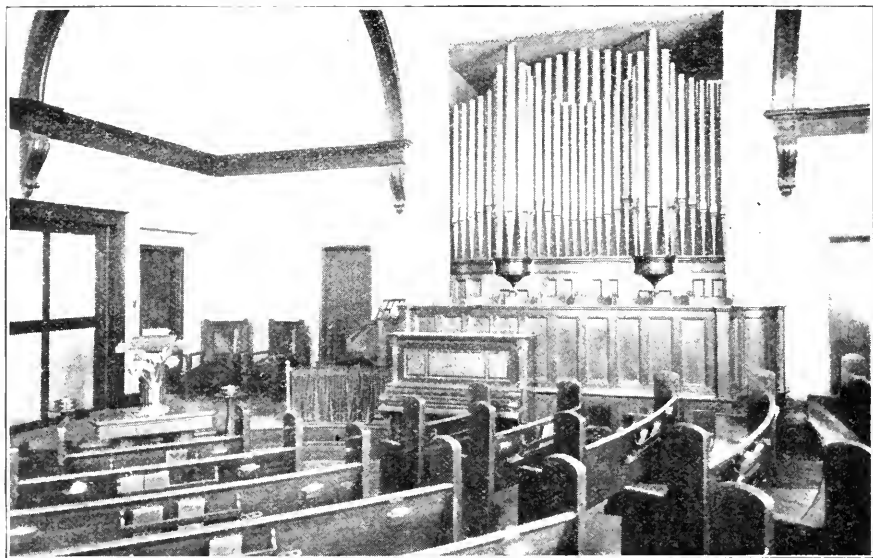

Rev. Arthur A. Wright

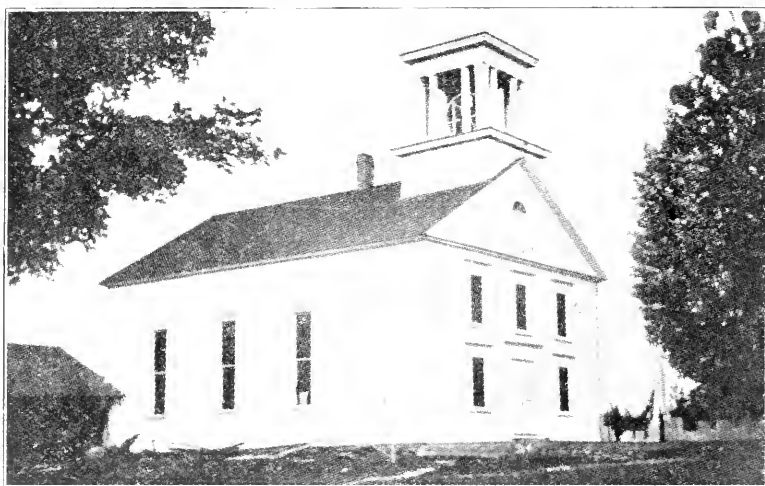

This building was dedicated on Sunday, March 16, the program being as follows: Scripture lesson by the pastor Rev. Arthur Wright. Opening prayer by Rev. G. W. Price. Introduction of Rev. Martyn Summerbell by Rev. O. I. Hathaway. Sermon by Rev. Martyn Summerbell, D. D. Text, John 15: 16. The formal dedication was conducted in the afternoon by the pastor.

Interior view, including the organ, of the First Christian Church of Urbana, Illinois. This large and modernly constructed organ was dedicated Sunday, May 25. Rev. E. A. Watkins, D. D., pastor. Rev. J. F. Burnett in charge of the service.

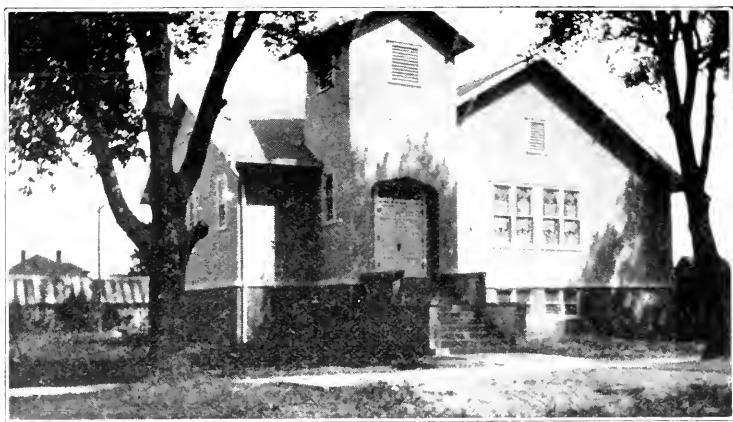

CHARLESTON FOUR CORNERS CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Eastern New York Conference. Rededicated Sunday, November 30, 1924.
Rev. Norman T. Headley pastor, and in charge of the service.

This church was organized December 9, 1813. Rev. John Ross was chosen pastor in 1822, and remained in service until 1874. This church has been especially notable for the number of her sons who have entered the work of the gospel ministry. The list includes Revs. John Spoor, Jr., Asa Allen, Amasa Stanton, Jarvis J. Carr, Eben Wood, Lyman Allen, George N. Ross, John N. Spoor, Hezekiah Leonardson, Calvin Southwick, Samuel E. Bowdish, Hiram J. Gordon, Ed. in Burnap, John H. Carr, Nelson Putnam, Charles McDuffie, John B. Gove, and perhaps others.

George D. Eastes

George D. Eastes was born near Warren, Indiana, May 4, 1890. Member of the Eastern Virginia Conference at the time of death, May 4, 1924. Member of the International Association of Evangelists, Department of Evangelism and Life Service, Evangelist and pastor of the Third Street Christian Church (Christian Temple), First Christian Church, Raleigh, N. C., and Holy Neck, Va.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH, SUMNER, ILLINOIS

Rev. J. M. Bradbury, Pastor

Sumner is in the Southern Wabash Illinois Conference, and in 1865 the Christian Church "mothered every denomination of the little city." The present building was erected at a cost of about $11,600.00, one-half of which was raised on Sunday, July 20, when the house was formally dedicated. Rev. Warren H. Denison, D. D., of Dayton, Ohio, preached at the forenoon service, and conducted the money raising. Rev. Clarence Defur, D. D., of Wakarusa, Indiana, a former pastor, delivered the dedicatorial sermon in the afternoon, using for a text the first verse of the 122d Psalm. Rev. Alvin O. Jacobs, President of the Southern Wabash Illinois Christian Conference, was present, and had part in the service.

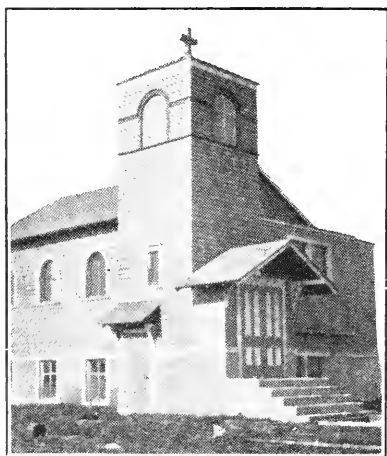

Rev. I. M. Hoel
(Deceased)

WILLIAM SAMUEL LONG
Founder and First President of Elon College

William S. Long was born in Alamance County, North Carolina, October 22, 1839. He was fatally injured in an automobile accident, on July 30. He died in a hospital at Sanford, N. C., August 3, 1924. He was a member of the North Carolina Christian Conference, in the fellowship of which he had lived and served for more than a half-century. Very early in life he became deeply interested in education, and to that particular line of work he fully and definitely devoted himself. He was Superintendent of Public Schools of Alamance County for a number of years; had much to do with the founding and success of Graham Institute, which was organized in 1865, and which was merged with Elon College, which he founded in 1890, and became its first president. He organized many of the Christian churches of Alamance County, one of which—Longs Chapel—bears his name. For many years he was a leading educator, and an honored and influential minister.

Prairie Chapel Christian Church

The rebuilt Prairie Chapel Christian Church at Voorhies, Illinois, was dedicated November 30, 1924, commemorating the twenty-third anniversary of the dedication of the first edifice in 1891.

This church first met as a union Sunday-school in a schoolhouse a mile east of the present site. It was organized as a branch of the Lake Fork Christian Church December 18, 1885, by Revs. G. W. Rippey and Mrs. K. E. Miller. In 1891, its first building was erected.

The new structure consists of an auditorium seating two hundred people, a recess for chair and pulpit, vestibule with stairways, and a basement under the whole for social purposes. It is heated by a furnace and wired for electric lights, and is so built that an apartment for Sunday-school use may be added later.

Rev. Walter Fasnacht,
Pastor Prairie Chapel
Church

Three services were held during the day. In the morning, Rev. G. W. Rippey, who was pastor when the old church was built, delivered the sermon. In the afternoon, Rev. J. J. Douglas, D. D., gave the dedicatory address. The pastor, Rev. Walter Fasnacht, preached at the evening service.

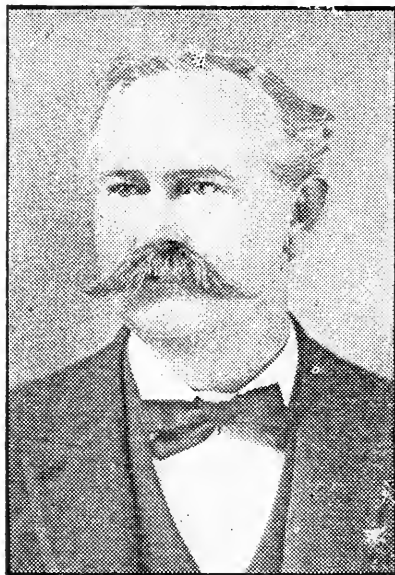

Christian Temple, Norfolk, Virginia. Rev. L. E. Smith, D. D., Pastor

Rev. Leon Edgar Smith, D. D.

The Christian Temple, Norfolk, Virginia, was formally opened to the public on Sunday, March 16. On the occasion the following ministers were present, and took part in the opening program: Rev. Warren H. Denison, D. D., Superintendent of the Forward Movement; Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D., Mission Secretary of the Southern Christian Convention; Rev. Roy C. Helfenstein, D. D., Secretary for the Department of Evangelism. Mr. Hermon Eldridge and Lieutenant Governor J. E. West also brought messages. The building and equipment cost above two hundred thousand dollars. There were eleven hundred in Sunday-school on opening day.

Rev. H. H. Butler

Rev. Harrison Holland Butler was born in Isle of Wight County, Virginia, July 20, 1852, and passed away suddenly at his home, in Suffolk, Virginia, on February 16, 1924.

He was educated at the old Suffolk Collegiate Institute, with Revs. W. B. Wellons and E. W. Beele as his helping friends.

He was licensed to preach by the Eastern Virginia Christian Conference in November, 1878, and ordained as an elder in November, 1879. He was in the active ministry nearly forty-five years. During that time he served as pastor of at least twenty-one churches.

R. H. McDaniel and J. F. Burnett, the two oldest members both in years and membership, in the Southern Ohio Conference. Rev. McDaniel, was received to membership in 1869 and ordained in 1873, and Rev. Burnett was received to membership in 1877 and ordained in 1879. The picture was taken by Miss Eva M. Froman at Feesburg, Ohio, during the sitting of the Conference in 1924.

Rev. W. Rollo Boehringer has the distinction of being pastor of the Enon Christian Church, which was organized in 1806, as a direct result of the Cane Ridge Revival. When this church was organized, Ohio was but a little more than three years old, and many Indians and wild animals lurked in the dense forest, and many poisonous serpents crawled in the rank grass which surrounded the first place of worship. The first building was of logs, the floor of puncheons, the furnace a huge fireplace about ten feet wide, and windows of greased paper. Great logs of wood were used for fuel, and the house lighted at night with tallow candles. The evening service always began at "early candle lighting." In this house, Elders David Purviance and Barton Stone, of Cane Ridge history, often held service. This building is said to be the first house of worship dedicated in the community extending many miles in every direction. The deacons'hip of the church has been in the Baker family continuously since 1806, father, son, and grandson covering a period of one hundred and eighteen years. J. D. Baker, the grandson, is yet in service, he having been ordained in 1881. Rev. Melyne D. Baker, a pioneer minister of the Christians, is a son of this church.

Rev. W. Rollo Boehringer

Harry G. Rowe

Rev. Harry G. Rowe, Eel River Conference, is now Superintendent of the Division of Young People, of the Indiana Council of Religious Education. He was President of the Illinois State Sunday School Association for a term of years. His duties now are Educational and Promotional. He will conduct conventions, institutes, rallies, building programs, and such other work as fall to his lot. His office address is 517 Occidental Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Marion Lawrance

Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager, at last.
Father, in thy gracious keeping,
Leave me now thy servant, sleeping.

Born in Gratis, Preble County, Ohio, October 2, 1850. His father located at Yellow Springs, Ohio, in January, 1854. Antioch College had been opened but a short while before. Mr. Lawrance located there to be the proprietor of the college bookstore. Marion attended Antioch, altogether, including preparatory department, four years. During that time he taught various classes in the college, including Arithmetic, Grammar, and Latin, in order to pay his tuition, as he had to work his way through.

During his stay in Yellow Springs, he attended the Christian Church and Sunday-school. During a series of meetings, conducted by Elder N. Summerbell, he and his brother went to the altar, and afterward he united with the Christian Church. He was baptized in "the branch" not far from the college building, and, by invitation of Rev. Dr. Weston, took charge of the young people's choir. While yet in early manhood he decided to enter the Christian ministry, but his health failing, he was compelled to give up his studies, and consequently his desire for the pulpit. His father was at one time agent of The Christian Publishing Association.

In 1887 he located in Toledo, Ohio, where he became greatly interested in Sunday-school work, and became the Superintendent of a very successful Sunday-school and held the position for thirty-one years. During that time the school increased from 150 to about 1,500 in membership. He was called, in 1889, to be the General Secretary of the Ohio Sunday School Association, which position he held for ten years. In 1899 he was called to be the General Secretary of the International Sunday School Association, covering North America. This position he held until 1920, when he was retired for life, on full salary, to the position of Consulting General Secretary, and a younger man was elected as General Secretary. From 1910 to 1914, he was also one of the Secretaries of the World's Association, in conjunction with his work in North America.

He was a world traveler, having visited repeatedly, every State in the Union, every province in Canada, Cuba, Mexico, Newfoundland, and Alaska. He also attended World's Conventions abroad, in London, Jerusalem, Rome, Zurich, and Tokyo.

Mr. Lawrance is also the author of a number of books on Sunday-school work that have had wide circulation.

He died May 1, 1924.

Bethsaida Christian Church, Southern Wash Conference. Dedicated October 26, 1924, Rev. W. H. Denison in charge. Rev. Alvin O. Jacobs, president of the conference and a son of the church, assisted in the dedication.

Christian Training at Indian School

Wilson and Sam
Sam is the first boy enrolled in the Roosevelt Indian School

The Christian Church is represented in the Indian Work through the Home Missions Council and the Council of Women for Home Missions by supporting the Religious Work Director in the Theodore Roosevelt School, Fort Apache, Arizona.

At present there are eight Religious Work Directors as well as six workers directly appointed by denominational boards, acting in the larger government schools. These workers are under the supervision of G. E. E. Linquist, Haskell Institute, Lawrence, Kansas.

The program of work is fundamentally the same in all these schools including Sunday services and week-day religious instruction.

Children in the Theodore Roosevelt Indian School are drawn from the Navajo reservation in northern Arizona and northeastern New Mexico. They represent Catholic, Presbyterian, Baptist, and Christian Reformed mission fields. Religious services are held each Sunday morning—the Protestants attending the Sunday-school under the direction of the Religious Work Instructor, the Catholics attending mass conducted by a priest from Whiteriver, a near-by Apache government school and agency. On Tuesday evenings instruction classes are held for the older children who attend night school.

The Sunday-school is organized with three classes for school children and three classes for employees and their children. The Tuesday evening classes include regular religious instruction and meetings of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A.

Three-fourths of the three hundred and seventy-five children in the Theodore Roosevelt Indian School are boys, the parents not caring to send their children away to school. This may be due to the fact that parties sent out to secure children are usually composed entirely of men. A party composed of the Religious Work Director, another woman, and a Navajo interpreter recently had unusual success on the reservation, the parents being perfectly willing to allow their girls to leave the hogan to attend school in company with the white women. Visits of the parents to the school offer an opportunity to become more familiar with the background and home life of the children. Visits on the reservation and in the hogans develop a greater understanding and appreciation of the great strides the children must make before Christ will have first place in the land of the Navajo.

ELIZABETH HOWSARE,

Religious Work Director, Theodore Roosevelt Indian School.
Fort Apache, Arizona.

Rev. Robert Gee

Robert Gee was born near Gregoryville, Ky., March 6, 1840, and died in Gregoryville, Ky., February 29, 1924.

His grandfather organized the Barretts Creek Christian Church, September 3, 1803. It was represented in the first session of the Kentucky Christian Conference, which met in 1804. His grandfather was present at the conference held in the "Old" Lebanon Church, Surry County, Virginia, in 1794, when all human names were rejected and the name Christian accepted. Robert Gee united with the Barretts Creek Christian Church, October 17, 1857, and in 1871 was elected clerk of the church, which position he held for many years, and perhaps was in office at the time of his death. He was ordained a minister in the Christian Church, October 22, 1877, at Cora Hill, Ky., by Elders M. L. Maddix, H. L. Forest, and B. F. Bolling.

He served the Middle, Ky., Christian Conference, as secretary, from 1871 to 1890, when he was elected secretary of the Kentucky State Christian Conference. For many years he purposed in his heart to build a church on the site of the old organization, which he accomplished in the year 1920, when the house was dedicated by Rev. Henry Crampton, of Ohio. This he regarded as the crowning work of his life.

Rev. Melissa Terrill

Her maiden name was Garrett. She was licensed by the Southern Ohio Christian Conference in 1856, as "Female laborer." She was ordained at the Ebenezer Church, Clark County, Ohio, on March 7, 1867, the ordaining committee being Elders Mark D. Briney, E. W. Humphreys, and N. Dawson. At the time of her ordination her name was Melissa Garrett. Later she was married to Rev. W. H. H. Timmons; and many years afterward, in Iowa, became the wife of Dr. C. E. Terrill. She reunited with the Southern Ohio Conference, and remained a member of it until 1881, when she removed to Iowa. She held pastorates in Ohio, Iowa, and Missouri, and the eventide of her life was spent in the West. She was the first woman ordained to the gospel ministry by the Christians, and, as far as known, the first to be ordained by any church in modern times.

KIRTON HALL, TORONTO

By Prof. J. A. Dales, Dean

There has been the usual number of students in the Hall during the past college year. They have given fine support to our two Toronto churches, both in auxiliary work and pulpit assistance and their help has been much appreciated.

The Class in Religious Education has been numerously attended not only by our students but by our young people.

Those in residence have also given of their generous help in supplying outside churches.

The finances are in good condition. The year was closed with a substantial balance on the right side.

In Toronto, the city of universities and churches, Kirton Hall welcomes students preparing for the ministry of the Christian Church, whether from the United States or Canada. Free rooms lighted and heated.

Rev. Ellen Grant Gustin

Ellen Grant Gustin was born in Frankford, Waldo County, Mass., March 8, 1835, and died at Attleboro, Mass., April 29, 1924. She was an ordained minister in the Rhode Island and Massachusetts Conference. Mrs. Gustin was the first Corresponding Secretary of the Woman's Board for Foreign Missions. This office she held until the death of the President, Mrs. Acsah E. Weston, in 1899, when she was elected to fill the vacancy. She filled this office until 1910, when she was made Honorary President, which position she held at the time of her death. To Mrs. Gustin belongs a very special and unique honor, that of organizing the first local woman's missionary society in our denomination. This society was organized at West Mansfield, Mass., in July, 1885.

THE MOORELAND CAMP MEETING ASSOCIATION

There is an organization in Indiana known as the Mooreland Camp Meeting Association, the moving spirit being Rev. G. Robert Van Zant, at present pastor of the Middletown and Sulphur Springs Christian Churches. The organization grew out of a Men's Brotherhood that had been organized for increasing interest and correctness in music. It includes in its membership individuals from the following named churches: Disciples of Christ, United Brethren, Church of the Brethren, Friends, Church of God, Methodist, and Christian. The organization is controlled by a Board of Directors of which the following are the officers:

President—Rev. G. Robert Van Zant.

Vice-President—J. L. Teeters.

Secretary—Vernon Van Zant.

Treasurer—Benton Ridgeway.

A grove about one-half mile south of Mooreland, Indiana, has been leased for a period of ten years, and a substantial tabernacle erected, which was dedicated on Sunday, August 2, 1924, by J. F. Burnett.

John Pressley Barrett

Born in Isle of Wight County, Virginia, February 5, 1852; died in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, May 1, 1924. United with Antioch Christian Church when yet a boy. Educated at Suffolk Collegiate Institute and Richmond College. Became a candidate for the ministry in 1872; licensed to preach by the Eastern Virginia Christian Conference at Cypress Chapel on Sunday, November 2, 1873; ordained to the full ministry by the Presbytery appointed by the Eastern Virginia Christian Conference at Berea Christian Church, Nansemond County, Virginia, on Sunday, November 7, 1874, and remained a member of that conference for fifty years.

He initiated home missions in his conference, served as president of the conference, fathered the Christian Missionary Association, was a member of the Provisional Board that located Elon College, member of the Board of Trustees of Elon College up to the time of his death, was an enthusiastic advocate of home and foreign missions and education, and led the Memorial Temple in Norfolk, Virginia, while pastor, to give as much for missions as for current expenses.

Was editor of The Christian Sun, organ of the Southern Christian Convention for thirteen years, and was editor of The Herald of Gospel Liberty, organ of The General Convention of the Christian Church for twelve years. He published The Little Teacher and The Sunday School Quarterly in Raleigh, North Carolina, until these finally yielded to the Sunday-school publications of The Christian Publishing Association, after the union of the Southern and Northern Conventions in Marion, Indiana, in 1890.

He was the author of the following books: "Iola Graham, or Facing the Truth," "Centennial of Religious Journalism," "Forty Years on the Firing Line," "Fruit Bearing Truths," "Modern Light Bearers," and "Garden Spots in the Old Testament."

Volunteers Appointed

Rev. L. C. Fletcher

Mrs. Anne King Fletcher

Rev. and Mrs. Llewellyn C. Fletcher and Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick were placed under appointment for overseas service by the Foreign Mission Department at the annual meeting in October, 1924.

Mr. Fletcher is the son of Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Fletcher of Toronto, Canada. He has the B. A. degree from McMaster University, the B. D. degree from Yale University and will take preliminary examinations for the Ph.D. degree at Yale in the spring of 1925. Mr. Fletcher has for years been specializing in the study of Japan. Mrs. Fletcher (nee Anne King) studied at the Methodist National Training School in New Haven, Conn., and has done practical work as a deaconess. She is now studying with her husband at Yale. These young people are exceptionally well fitted for their life work in Japan to which country they expect to sail with Miss Stacy in August, 1925.

Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick is the daughter of O. G. Kirkpatrick of our Antioch, Indiana, church. She is a graduate of DePauw University, and has had several years of high school teaching experience. She plans to spend next year in special study preparatory to her life work. It is expected that she will become the representative of the Christian Church as a teacher in some union mission school in either Japan or Porto Rico.

Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick

Genoa M. Wheatley, Editorial Assistant on The Herald of Gospel Liberty

Miss Wheatley, who is a graduate of Miami University and of the Miami-Jacobs Commercial College of Dayton, has for the past five years been the very efficient secretary and assistant of the editor of The Herald of Gospel Liberty. She prepares the Children's Page week by week, cares for much of the routine work on the periodical, and has charge of the office during the absence of the editor.

Miss Marian Morrill who has come to the Mission Offices to become the Missionary Education Secretary for both Departments, is the daughter of Dr. Milo T. and Mrs. Alice V. Morrill both of whom have been so well known in our mission work, and thus has had missionary training from her earliest home life. She graduated with honors in the class of 1924 at Defiance College. She will welcome correspondence with churches and Sunday-schools which desire to put on a missionary education program. Her address is Mission Rooms, C. P. A. Bldg., Dayton, Ohio.

Marian Morrill

Miss Ruth O. Smoot

Miss Smoot, secretary to Foreign Mission Secretary Minton, came into the office in November, 1919, during the acting Secretaryship of Dr. McCord. During these years she has taken charge of the regular work of the office while the Secretary has been out among the churches. In addition to this and an immense amount of correspondence, she reads the proof of The Christian Missionary, and has full charge of the mailing list now numbering nearly forty-five hundred names.

Miss Rhoads, secretary to Home Mission Secretary Thomas, came to the Home Mission office in August, 1920, and for more than four years she has not only written to thousands of folks all over the denomination but has been the bookkeeper for the Department of Missions, keeping all of the books of both Departments. In that time the Mission Board has handled near half a million dollars.

AFRO-CHRISTIAN CONVENTION

Ministerial Directory

Care has been taken to carefully check up the ministerial list with the reports, and time has been spent in putting the names in alphabetical order, but only according to the first letter. There is a discrepancy in the number here recorded and the one in the General Summary. Several names are duplicated, being reported by two conferences. The list and post-office addresses are as nearly correct as they could be made with the information at hand. In this list there is no distinction made between the ordained and the licentiate members.

MINISTERIAL DIRECTORY

The Ministerial Directory is as correct as time, care, and service could make it. It was checked up by three different persons, in three different ways, from all the information available. Some names are in it that were not reported by conference officials. They are the names of aged, superannuated, or infirm ministers, some of whom do not reside within reasonable reach of a Christian Conference, and some others are not reported because of a conference rule requiring certain attendance upon yearly sessions in order to hold membership. Some names and post-office addresses are given where conference membership is omitted. In such cases extra care was taken to verify the absence of such names in conference reports. In one case of omission the telegraph was used to secure definite information. Quite a number of names appear in two conferences. There is no way in the Convention Office of correcting such statements. Neither the General Convention nor the Christian Annual can confer conference membership, nor can it determine to which of two conferences one belongs when one's name appears in two reports. Some names were included in reports with very indifferent post-office addresses. Addressing one's mail to Chicago, New York, or Boston, without giving a street or building number, is not sufficient. In one case a special delivery letter was mailed, asking for a more definite address of ministers. The Ministerial Directory is confusing and inaccurate because of these deficiencies. Whatever discrepancies occur between the conference reports and the directory is accounted for by duplication of names and including such duplication in some places, and omitting names in others.

The cuts of Reverends Johnson and Mullen, were not available to The Christian Annual in time for them to be used in the first part of the book, a fact we greatly regret, but are glad that their likenesses can be preserved, even though they could not have a more prominent place in the book.

REV. AND MRS. W. F. MULLEN

Rev. W. F. Mullen was born April 18, 1838, and died May 15, 1924. Mrs. W. F. Mullen was born Dec. 25, 1846, and died May 16, 1924.

W. Frank Mullen was born in Rush County, Indiana. He died at Farmland, Indiana, May 15, 1924. He was a lifelong member of the Eastern Indiana Conference by which he was ordained.

REV. GEORGE JOHNSON

George W. Johnson was born in Randolph County, Indiana, November 11, 1847, and died in Eaton, Indiana, June 23, 1924. He was a lifelong member of the Eastern Indiana Conference, having been ordained by the Conference in his early life.

Rev. E. E. Helms, Pastor First M. E.
Church, Los Angeles, Calif.
November 14, 1923.

LePAGE CUP CO.,
Toronto, Canada.

Gentlemen:—

We are sending you our idea of the set we are using.

"To Those Who Want It 100 Per Cent. Right"

I have had the LePage Individual
Communion Cup Service in three large
Churches, namely: Central Church,
Wilkes-Barre, Penna.; Calvary Church,
Philadelphia, and now First Church,
Los Angeles, Calif.

The world is full of Individual Communion Devices, but there is only ONE,
the LePage Individual Communion
Service. No Pastor or Congregation who has ever used this Equipment once would think of using any other.

The Folding Tables are the only kind for Large Churches, and Round Wooden Trays for small Churches.
